Please review the enclosed information about your family and make any necessary correction or addition. If a family record sheet is enclosed, missing items are encircled or marked with a question mark. Please provide a brief biography of all persons over age 18.

Our association was created to serve Merwins who are descended from Miles Merwin (1623-97). For many years our newsletter, [illegible] has been published several times a year, reunions of Merwins have been sponsored, directories of Merwins published and the genealogy was published in 1978. Dear Cousin;

I have been attempting to contact your brother Eugene Miles Merwin to update his family entry for the Supplement we are writing to The Merwin Family in North America

My letter to him addressed to 17512 Stare St, Northridge CA 91324 was not returned as undeliverable. Is this his current address? Did he have any children?

Your help will be appreciated.

Sincerely,

Merwyn

Dear Marcia:

Many thanks for your letter dated 11 December.

Your interest in putting copies of our genealogy in the Denver Library is much appreciated.

I am answering your letter now even though you said you were spending Christmas in Rhode Island with Dick since I find I must reply asap or I may not be able to locate the correspondence later.

Whoever you spoke to at your high school reunion and now lives in Erie has me confused with Robert Merwin of Erie. Bob and his wife were the ones who suffered the loss of their beautiful home. I believe it was just the year before we had our reunion at their barn.

Hope you and Dick enjoyed Christmas. All the best for 1996.

Dear Cousin Merwyn:

Sorry to be so disgustingly slow in following up with J. Jeffreys of Denver Public Library. Talked to him today.

However, the progress sounds good. Mr. J. was immediately cognizant of the name and situation. He said he was meeting with his manager in the "next few days" and would recommend purchase of Vol. II + Vol. III for $20— which he realized was a good offer. He also mentioned that the Genealogy Dept. really appreciates receiving "Milestones" regularly.

I didn't offer to send $20.00 to the Library for purchase of the volumes since he seemed positive it would happen. I'm to check with him next week but since (I am) visiting Brother Dick in R.I. for the holidays it may not happen 'til '96.

Given my track record —
your slowest cousin
Marcia Merwin

P.S. Mr. J. said you may not recognize their vendor's name as a library, but that he would explain it to you.
Happy holidays.

P.S. As I was addressing the envelope, I recalled that during my high school reunion (Class of 1950) in Rutherford, N.J., I talked to a couple now residing in Erie. (This was last Oct.)

I casually mentioned your name which the wife didn't recognize, but her husband mused on it and then recalled the big fire at your place - not something you'd enjoy being famous for!

In connection with Rutherford, you may recall that a family of missionaries resided there (when not in Japan) and I believe they spoke at the program for an annual meeting a long time ago, before my parents died in about 1970.

Who can recall annual meetings that far back? I can't even remember to call the library!

Dear Cousin Marcia:

You wrote a note on your dues notice about including your nephews' children in volume III.

First, let me say it is too late to include them in Volume III. The deadline for data for the manuscript was May 31st.

Secondly, I think you know why we can not include families of persons not born with the name Merwin. To do so would necessitate the publication of a bunch of volumes. We have enough of a problem getting one volume at a time published. Also, the Weld children should be in the Weld Genealogy, if that family wants to expend the sweat and dollars necessary to do the job. We would have welcomed the Weld children if their parents had been interested enough to join our Association. As you know, we make an exception for persons not born Merwins who are descended from Miles [1] and are interested enough to be members of our Assocaiton. Is that too much to ask?

If Chris and Mark would like to become members (forms are enclosed), we will be pleased to announce the births of their children in Milestones and inculde them in Vol. IV when we get to that task sometime in the future.

Sorry you do not like this answer, but you will agree it does not result from an attitude of chauvinism. By insisting that persons become members, we reduce the number of applicants to a managable number.

Best regards,

Merwyn R. Buchanan

family in North America.

Merwin Sites in Milford

The three principal Merwin sites in Milford are the tombstone of Miles (1), the Merwin stone on the Memorial Bridge, and the Merwin homestead.

The tombstone had become badly worn, and as its first project the Association decided to reproduce it in the original brownstone with a copy of the original inscription. The old stone was placed in a plastic bag and encased in the cement base of the new stone, which was put in place in December, 1969. Miles was not an original settler (called "planter") of Milford - - he was an "after planter" - - nevertheless his tombstone was one of the oldest in the Milford cemetery because, it is said, the original settlers were buried in unmarked graves in order not to alert the Indians in the area as to the number who had died. The grave is in the old section of the cemetery - the southeastern side near the railroad - - and is enclosed in an iron fence.

Many tombstones in the old part of the cemetery had become so badly worn that they were illegible. Accordingly, in 1974 Earle A. Merwin, longtime Association Director and the last descendant to occupy the Merwin homestead (see below) placed on a concrete slab within the fence surrounding Miles' grave a brass plaque on which are inscribed the names and dates (underscored in the listing below) of Merwins and their wives buried in the old part of the cemetery as best he could determine. These are shown in the first column below. Not all of them can be linked with entries in our genealogy, but those that can are identified further if necessary and in the second and third columns their generation and MFNA descendant number are given. (Parentheses around a descendant number indicate a spouse of a Merwin).

Dear Cousin - I'm not sure if this counts. My sister's ~~da~~ son was married & had a son - Derek - about October, 1982. If I understand correctley, her daughter's three sons don't count (for the ~~B~~ new book). Being a non-militant feminist, that goes against the grain but guess you'd run out of space.

Do you have a form for other children? Suggest you explain in a newsletter who qualifies.

Dear Merwyn,

I am sad to advise that my sister, Sara Jean Merwin Weld, died on April 25th 1981. She is survived by her husband Christopher Sr., and children Mark Merwin, Christopher Jr., and Elizabeth Mackey, all of Manchester, Massachusetts.

The problem was a brain tumor which was simply too agressive to be overcome. Her age was 55.

Sally's number is 4206, the tenth generation.

Diane and I again send thanks and appreciation for your outstanding work on the geneology.

Sincerely yours
Dick

Dear Cousin:

Thanks to you I have all the data I need for your family's entry in the supplement except for one item.

I'd like to have a brief biography of you and your husband and for each of your children. You know - schools, occupations, interests, etc.

Also we would appreciate your joining our association. We need every Merwin's support. The annual dues are only $2.00 a year. (Checks payable to Miles Merwin Assn.) And $2.00 covers the family except for married children.

Sincerely,

Merwyn

Dear Cousin Richard:

Many thanks for your letter dated 21 March 1996 forwarding the picture of your family.

It is, indeed, a fine photograph. I shall preserve it against the day when another volume of genealogy is published by the Association. Genealogies in general are merely an accumulation of statistics and names and mighty dry reading. Pictures like this and biographies are the things which make the whole thing come alive and build interest.

Your interest and appreciation for my work is much appreciated.
Best regards,

Dear Merwyn,

I enclose a picture which may be useful to the Association.

It was taken in Ravenna Ohio, I estimate in 1894, and shows my grandfather William Franklin Merwin (1774) sitting at the right, my grandmother Jennie Amelia Hawn Merwin immediately to the left, my father Harry Hawn Merwin (3088) standing in front, and my aunt Mabel Merwin Stuart (3087) sitting in front.

Others in the picture are members of the Hawn and Merwin families. Aunt Mabel had identified these relatives to us but most unfortunately, the key was lost in a house fire that we had some years ago.

This photo is a copy (it came out very well, I think) and I still have the original.

Please use this in any fashion that you see fit.

I close with many thanks for your work with the Association.

Your sister, Marcia, put a note on her dues form, which tells us that our records on your family are incomplete.

Would you please have your daughter, Elizabeth, fill out the enclosed Merwin Family Record form? This will give us information about her husband and their child.

Your help will be much appreciated.

I think my brother (Richard H. of Barrington, R.I.) would have notified you (52-40) about his daughter, Elizabeth. She was married in about '96 to John Hill in Florida; had a daughter Amelia (Diane?) in January '97. She very ~~nicly~~ nicely named her after my mother, Amelia Henkelman Merwin who died much too soon in 1965. Merwin's might recall her playing the piano at reunions for sing-alongs. But that's a long time ago.

Thank you for your family record. There is just one missing item - the date of Diana's birth.

Also, you have the shortest biography on record. Perhaps you would like to add schools attended, degrees earned, civic, military or church service. You may wish to include something about Diana too. Whatever you like.

Enclosed is a draft of your entry. Any changes needed?

Returned herewith are the photographs which you submitted for use in the book. Although all possible care was taken, I am sorry to say a couple of them were somewhat damaged.

ON THE WINGS OF A DREAM

WORDS AND MUSIC BY JOHN DENVER

Yesterday I had a dream about dying
About laying to rest and then flying
How the moment at hand
Is the only thing we really own
And I lay in my bed and I wonder
After all has been said and is done for
Why is it thus we are here
And so soon we are gone

Is this life just a path
To the place that we all have come from
Does the heart know the way
And if not can it ever be found
In a smile or a tear
Or a prayer or a sigh or a song

And if so then I sing for my father
And in truth you must know I would rather
He were here by my side
We could fly on the wings of a dream
To a place where the spirit could find us
And joy and surrender would bind us
We are one anyway
Anyway we are more than we seem

There are those who will lead us
Protect us each step of the way
From beginning to end
For each moment forever each day
Such a gift has been given
It can never be taken away

Though the body in passing must leave us
There is one who remains to receive us
There are those in this life
Who are friends from our heavenly home
So I listen to the voices inside me
For I know they are there just to guide me
And my faith will proclaim it is so
We are never alone

From the life to the light
From the dark of the night to the dawn

He is so in my heart
He is here he could never be gone
Though the singer is silent
There still is the truth of the song

Yesterday I had a dream about dying
About laying to rest and then flying
How the moment at hand
Is the only thing we really own

And I lay in my bed and I wonder
After all has been said and is done for
Why is it thus we are here
And so soon we are gone
Why is it thus we are here
And so soon we are gone

Dear Merwyn -

Misplaced your letter - just found it - my apologies - Enclosed is check for $17 which I owe you. I have a copy of Vol II - just didn't know how to find it I guess.

Yes, Val graduated from Davis 1983 as a Dr. of Vet Medicine. She is working full time at Avalon Animal Hosp in Carson CA & resides at 2473 W. 253rd St. Lomita, Ca 90717 where she has her 2 Arabian horses, two dogs, 2 rabbits and 1 cat. Fortunately we were able to find a piece of property zoned A-1 and large enough to accomodate horses - not too easy in this overcrowded expensive city!

Have no further news of the family. One of these years I'm going to try to make the reunion & finally meet some of my "cousins".

Love

Carolyn

Dear Gus:

I am back in the saddle again after a great vacation.

New members:
Dr/Mrs L. Mark Merwin 7307 191st St ?Ct E, Puyallup WA 98373

Reinstatements:

Mr. Ralph Leslie Merwin, HC 87 Box 5260, Lewistown, MT 59457 is a non-member, but is interested in purchasing Volume III when it is published. Will you please make a note?

Your letter of 2 June questioned Rodney Brown which I listed as a new member. The name should have been Rodney R. Merwin (my mistake). His dues were paid by Mrs. Nestrick a member from Torrance, CA. She is the niece of Rodney. I helped her find him after his being "lost" for many years. She recently visited him and wanted to give him a membership. Do you have record of a check from Mrs. Nestrick? She gave me a check for $10 and one for $67. The first was for her uncle's dues; the second was for Vol. I and II and a Lineage Locator for her. Trouble was she tried to con me into the library rate for the genealogies. I wrote her on 27 May asking for an additional check for $17. Did I send you these two checks? I intended to. I try to forward all checks as soon as I get them so they do not stray or become uncollectible. At any rate, I can not find the checks here. If you did not get them, I'll ask Mrs. Nestrick for replacements. I probably put the checks in a "safe" place; so, I shall keep looking.

According to my records, Mrs. Thomas C. Zink has been a member since 1985. Her maiden name was Dorothy Hewson, granddaughter of Ben Merwin of Canada. I believe her mother paid her dues for her.

OK on Helen Myers' payment for her son Kevin. Just apply it to the next year due.

Will bring you statiuonery as requested.

Merwyn,

Received your letter today telling of how your trip to Italy fizzled. Sounds awful. Trust you got off May 31.

You will not get to this for awhile but I will write while it's fresh in my mind. A couple of things:

Mrs. Hestrick
Torrance CA

You listed Rodney Brown as a new member but there was no check in your envelope from him. ?

✓ You gave me a new address for Thomas C. Zink. Is he a member. I find no record of him anywhere.

✓ You enclosed dues for Kevin F. Myers. The money order was from Helen B. Myers (Mrs. James L.), his mother. Dues for both are current ('88-'89 paid). I applied this payment to '89-'90 for the mother. OK?

Forgive the old stationary — I am running short on the ones you had printed. July will be time enough.

See you soon —

Dear Carolyn:

Many thanks for your letter dated 18 May. and the information about your daughter.

You did not say so, but I assume she graduated from the University of California at Davis. Right? I shall put an amendment to you family entry in Volume III about her.

I am sorry to say we can not give you or anyone else the library rates for our publications. It would not be fair to those who paid the full price. We can extend the library rate only where we ship directly to a library and the books will be put on open shelves to spread the word about the Merwin Family. Accordingly, I must ask you for a check for $17.00 to complete the purchase price of the publications you want sent to Rodney.

I appreciate the info about your nephew Ralph. Have you a copy of Volume II of MFNA? On page 745, Jean Ruth Merwin Burgess is shown in entry #6143. The address shown is the latest one I have: 2904 W. Bulla Drive, Payson AZ 85541. Have you tried contacting her at that address?

Will try to find space to run the article you sent me in a coming issue fo Milestones.

Dear Merwyn -

Sorry I didn't get a letter off to you sooner - but since there was no change to our family I neglected to even answer.

On our trip east this year we stopped to see my uncle Rodney Merwin for whom you so kindly sent me an address a few years ago. It was real fun seeing him & we all drove up Merwin's Lane to see my grandfather's old farm house. The new owners were quite intrigued to listen to Rodney recall old times. The out house is still there with all the children's heights recorded on the wall. We also visited the old cemetery & took pictures.

Our daughter Valerie did graduate in 1983 from Davis as a Doctor of Veterinary Medicine & practices & lives here in Southern Calif. If you maintain addresses hers is 2473 W. 253rd St. Lomita, Ca 90717 & will be there awhile since we helped her buy the house!

My nephew Ralph Merwin of 13489 S.W. Laurmont Ct. Tigard, OR 97223 did get married but since he never writes I don't even know his wife's name!

You might be able to get the information from my brother Edwin Merwin, 8008 Archer St Fair Oaks, Ca 95628.

Came across the enclosed article about Ruth Merwin in my Girl Scout collection. As I was breezing thru some old magazines the name, of course, "leaped" out at me. There is no info re the daughter Jean Ruth Merwin born 7/8/21. Would gladly send her a copy if I could locate her.

I noted that Rodney is not a member so would like to pay for a membership for him. Also since he does not have a copy of the genealogy would like to send him a set. Can I get the library price of $55? Also would like a Lineage Locator for myself. Is $12 enough?

Dear Cousin:

It has been many weeks since we wrote you asking for an update on your family record and you have not replied.

We do want to include your family in Volume III of The Merwin Family in North America, but we can not do so unless you reply. If there is no change in your entry, please tell me so. It will only take a moment for you to reply.

If I do not hear from you by March 31st, your record will be filed and omitted from Volume III. You will receive no other request.

Dear Cousin:

As you may know, we are in the process of updating family entries with the view to preparing Volume III of _The Merwin Family in North America_.

All members of the Association of the eleventh generation will have an opportunity to update their family entry and have the update included in Volume III. This includes the names and birth dates of your children. If, however, your children wish to have their wife and children in Volume III, they must become members of the Association. Will you please check with each of your children and, if they are interested in having their families in Volume III, ask them to send me a check for $10 payable to Miles Merwin Assn. for annual dues. I shall then contact them for information.

Please look at you entry in Volume II to see if any change is required. If so, write me and I shall include the change in Volume III.

Best regards,

Merwyn R. Buchanan

twelve year olds say, "Gee, it's fun to be in Mrs. Brown's troop, there is always something doing. She takes us hiking, lets us give super parties, and helps us find lots of service to do. Why Ruth Merwin Is a Leader

Last month we were so disappointed by the small number of responses to our question, "Why are you a leader?" that we pointed our finger at four particular leaders and asked them to start the ball rolling. Here is the first reply. Mrs. T. E. Merwin, Leader of Lone Troop 2, Croton-on-Hudson, New York, has been organizing other lone troops in her community.

HOW DID I BECOME A LEADER? JUST the way we so often find ourselves involved in a big job—by talking too much. For lack of a leader, our troop was put under a neighboring council. That spelled doom before it even started, because of transportation difficulties if nothing more. So I agreed to take over the troop if someone else would assume the financial responsibilities. Once involved, it is not so easy to pull out. Soon you are so wrapped up in progress, individually and collectively, it holds you like a mystery story and you want to see it through. Some programs don't turn out in the blaze of glory you had visualized, some girls don't take to Scouting as you had hoped, but I finally learned that one "real Scout" a year is a year well spent. All this, besides what Scouting does for you personally. Can it be there is a leader who doesn't feel younger after dancing "Tancuj," or feel that she has her finger on the pulse of the times more for the association with individuals who will help shape the policies of our nation in the critical days ahead — perhaps colored not a little by the principles of honest and useful living that we as leaders have the opportunity to teach?

Scouting is challenging, the field limitless. How can people resist? Croton Scouting has grown from one small troop until, this fall, we open with five, including a Senior troop and a Brownie troop. These last three years with 75 Scouts would have been impossible without one of those rare co-leaders (I prefer this term) who is always at the right place at the right time, without my suggestion, because she has made herself so thoroughly acquainted with the program. Also a troop committee that helps teach the badges and gives backing to a degree that I find, as I travel around the country, is unique in its cooperativeness. I think you would say our subtle campaign to make the town "Scout conscious" has succeeded. Being careful what we ask, we have yet to be refused a request.

The project of greatest satisfaction to me was a window exhibit last Christ by our Senior troop: "Gifts and trimmings of materials at hand for a wartime Christmas."

Dear Carolyn:

Yes, I talked to Rodney. Found him in my search for Merwins. I called Directory Service for Fairfield, Conn. & asked & got his phone number. I then called him and got his address, which is:

400 Mill Road
Fairfield CT

His phone number is 1-203-255-3873.

In regards to your offer of old family records for use in the supplement, please do not send me that sort of thing at this time. We will make decisions just before the final manuscript is typed as to what type of illustrations will be included. Then, we shall ask everybody to submit that type of thing. Probably through Milestones.

I have been corresponding with Dr. Edwin Preston Merwin and have completed his entry.

I can't use your comments about the two Millards - it must be specific - when and where in Calif. they died.

Understand you wish no change in your family entry except to mention you are employed now by Hitachi. Right?

4221a - Ralph Edwin Merwin is living at:
2056 N.W. Glisan #34, Portland OR 97209

I have been unable to locate Marilyn (4222) and I'll appreciate it if you can find her name + address.

The additions on 1830 + 3137 you gave me have been set up for the Supplement.

Can you get me the parents' names of Elsie Brown Merwin your grandmother? I dislike the phrase, "of undetermined parentage".

The marriage record of Lina Ellen Merwin and the other Merwins is quite interesting, but I have no way of knowing how they connect with our family, if they do. Perhaps the marriage records in Sacramento would give the full names of Lina's parents - probably H H + Ogle C. Merwin. We could then trace their parents and possibly connect them to our line.

Your grandfather, George Henry Merwin, must have been quite a person.

Is your Aunt Florence living? If so, I'd like to know the names of her husband's parents.

Best regards,

Merwyn

Rec'd 3/16/81

Dear Merwyn:

I almost flipped over your letter - you talked to Rodney? Do you have his address? I haven't been able to locate him for three years. When my Aunt Florence died she left everything to a neighbor by the name of Reed who was supposed to take care of Rodney and moved him somewhere. I talked to Ada Reed, his wife, whose address is Box 61, Stevenson, Conn 06491, but she didn't know where Rodney was living and his Christmas cards came back address unknown. The Reeds were in the process of divorce, so his address was different. Ada did send me a large carton of Florence's papers which had some old pictures anddocuments of my grandfather's (George Henry) Would you like to borrow any of them for the new book? Or would you like me to have half-tones made thatyou could keep?

Have a bunch of old land deeds going back to one Abijah (190) purchased from his mother & father Daniel & Mary (87) for 20 pounds 10 shillings - signatures are Daniel Murwin and Mary Murwin 4/22/1795. Dear Cousin:

Last night, I was talking to your uncle Rodney Ray Merwin on the phone and he mentioned your name. That reminded me that I have no record of getting an update on your family for the supplement to MFNA.

Will you please give me any change in the enclosure or tell me there is none so I may set up your family entry for the supplement? Please let me have your daughter's address if she is not living with you.

Thank you for your help.

Old Stone Walls Add Charm To New England Landscape

pulled out, boulders and stones removed. They did not measure each man's farm to the exact inch or even foot. They paced it off and set up a marker, and those marks are upheld by the courts today."

All hands, old men, young men, boys, went to work with a will cleaning up the land,—putting the rocks and stones into fences. Great strong oxen, not Devons, but of the old native type, were with them in the fields day in and day out. The largest rocks were drawn up onto the fence by oxen pulling from the other side. Right over top of hills and small mountains, and through forest runs the rock fence, dividing your farm from your neighbor's, separating your "medder" land from your "paster" land, and marking your boundary line along the country highway. I have often heard it and so have you if you were brought up on a farm that "a rod of wall a day is a good job for two men and a pair of oxen."

The first settlers did not build all of the stone walls that we see today. Following them were those ancestors of ours who took part in the Revolutionary War who were sturdy and strong. Their blood, fired to such a heat in that long struggle for liberty was for many years still flowing in their veins, and they labored hard to subjugate these fields and build walls to enclose them.

As we look upon the walls today, they all seem to have been built at the same time; but the fact is that they were built by many generations of farmers. When I was a boy, more than sixty years ago, I watched my father, whose name was John, with his men, make stone walls; and he often showed me the walls that his father Samuel had made; and back of that are older walls made by Samuel's father Abijah, and yet farther back, Abijah's father Daniel; for all of these lived on the same farm that I now occupy and call by own today. Of course here and there an acre has been added to or taken from the original farm, but most of the original acreage is still intact, bounded on all sides and much cris-crossed through the middle, by walls that these five generations

Not all the stone walls of New England are alike. There are many varieties. Some are great rock walls and may be either low or high; some are built of smaller stones and low; many are built double up to two or three feet in height, and then single to the top. Some are really two single walls, wide apart with center just filled in with small stones. One on my farm is just that and fully ten feet wide. A pair of horses abreast could easily travel on top of it; but it got rid of the stones and that was what was wanted.

To me nothing is more interesting than walking through our forests and finding today great rock fences, though out of repair, telling the story of the early settlers; and here and there the cellar of one of the early homes, now filled with a growth of young trees; near by a depression that was the well; and an opening in the wall that once led to the garden or the barn-yard. The property once cleared has reverted from lack of use and nature has stepped in and done her part.

One writer has said that "If our forefathers who worked so hard to conquer these rough New England farms, could see how we have neglected our stone-walls and even our fields, they would turn in their graves"; and "perhaps," the writer continues, "that is why so many tomb-stones in old cemeteries are crooked, there is so much turning underneath them."

Many of the old stone-walls of New England "will remain for long, long years to come. Over them will bend the trees; along them will scamper squirrels; on them birds will sing their music. These New England walls are bonds of friendship, binding the hearts of her people to the land."

"Besides the road where traffic teams,
The old gray wall in the sunlight dreams
Of days when builders and farm were young—
When, stone by stone, from the fields it sprung
To stand on guard for the new-built home,
A trim young sentry in monochrome.

Now are tales of thrice a life-time traced
By mosses and lichens interlaced,
Where winter and summer, spring and fall
Have diaries kept on the old stone-wall;
And the old stone-wall its gray head bows
To share the grief of the shuttered house.

Ah, who has ear for the silent prayer
The old wall utters in its despair?
Aye, who shall listen and understand
That the old wall longs for the builder's hand
To set it straight where its back is bowed,
Once more to shape it erect and proud?
Ah, who?—for the builders, one and all
Have crossed the gap in the old stone wall."

Quotations, not otherwise mentioned, are from: M. G. Harkness and J. G. Witham in Troubadour and H. S. Pearson in Rural New-Yorker.

Old Stone Walls Add to Rugged Charm of New England Landscape

Editor's note: George H. Merwin, of Merwin's Lane,, Greenfield Hill, knows whereof he speaks when he discusses stone walls. His own farm, family acres for generations, has its share of such walls and like the good Yankee farmer that he is, Mr. Merwin keeps them in condition from year to year.

In his non-agricultural moments, Mr. Merwin is a collector of Americana, a writer on subjects of local historical interest, and a student of the New England background. He is a member of the Council of the Fairfield Historical society, an active worker in the Greenfield Hill Congregational Society, and a member of the Greenfield Grange.

His published works include a scholarly history of Greenfield Hill and several brochures on that section, including one on the famous dogwoods, one on the school-houses of Greenfield through two centuries, and one on his own street, Merwin's Lane.)

GEORGE H. MERWIN

THE OLD STONE WALLS OF NEW ENGLAND

By GEORGE H. MERWIN

No one has ever travelled through New England without being greatly impressed by the old stone walls that abound in that section. They were not built for their beauty, but for usefulness. Very little has ever been written about them, although artists have frequently painted them on canvas, and poets have sometimes sung in their praise.

To a seasoned New England farmer who has spent much of his lifetime building new stone-walls and repairing gaps in the old ones, even the mention of the word STONE-WALL, suggests sprained back, scraped shins, pinched fingers and toes, shattered nerves and a ruined disposition.

Of the New England states, New Hampshire has been the most noted for well built walls. A New Hampshire poet, Robert Frost, has ably written about them in verse under the title, "Mending Fences," a part of which is well worth quoting:

Sometimes there is that doesn't love a wall,
That sends the frozen-ground-swell under it
And spills the upper boulders in the sun;
And makes gaps even two can pass abreast.
The work of hunters is another thing;
I have come after them and made repair
Where they have left not one stone on a stone,
But they would have the rabbit out of hiding.
To please the yelping dogs. The gaps I mean,
But at Spring-mending-time we find them there.
I let my neighbor know beyond the hill
And on a day we meet to wall the line
And set the wall between us once again,
He only says "Good fences make good neighbors,"
Something there is that doesn't love a wall,
And wants it down.

I wonder if we all know that New England is practically the only place on this earth where stone-walls extensively abound, and there are thousands of miles of them,—no one knows how many for they have never been counted. We of New England have always understood that in the west, boys and girls have grown to manhood and to womanhood without ever having seen a stone as large as their hands. But in New England what boy has not been so acquainted with stones that from his early days he has thrown them at chipmunks along the roadsides? Or what girls in the little old-style one-room district schools have not built play-houses of rows of stones during the recess or noon hour?

We are so familiar with rocks and stones here in New England that we scarcely notice them at all.

From the beginning of civilization, there have no doubt been fences, and always made of the most available materials. We know that hedges are used for fences in England and Ireland and probably in many other places of the Old World. Rows of stumps drawn into line for a fence have been seen on newly cleared land. I have seen old wheels,—wagon wheels, horse rake wheels and other kinds of wheels used for a section of fencing; and we are all familiar with wire fences and board fences and the old zig-zag Virginia rail fences that Lincoln, so it is said, liked so much to split. In many places of the west where livestock are raised, the animals are just branded and roam at will anywhere, with no fence to interrupt their wanderings.

A few years ago I travelled in Palestine, went almost the entire length of that little country, from Galilee to Jerusalem and Bethlehem and beyond, some 100 miles or more. There were flocks of sheep and goats and donkeys or jackasses without number, but in all that country there was never a fence to enclose those flocks and herds; although and rocks abound almost as numerous as in New England, as the stories from our own Bible prove. But New England, as I have said, is the only place on this earth where real stone-walls exist.

And wasn't it the natural thing for these encumberances to cultivation to be built into walls? New England, in the early days was devoted to the beef cattle industry (not dairying), and what could our forebears do without fencing? Fences may not be needed today, but our forefathers needed them and used them. This rocky New England was the choice of the Pilgrom Fathers,—our forebears.

Men used to wonder what was the source of all of New England's rocks. They need to wonder no more. Scientists have told us they were brought here during the ice age by great glaciers slowly moving down from the North, and these glaciers had so-called "lateral and terminal moraines," made up of rocks picked up as they moved along, and these were dumped in due course of time over pretty much all of New England.

In composition they were usually made up of quartz, feldspar and mica in varying proportions, but enough of each to be called granite. Of course many other rocks abound, some filled with garnet crystals, sometimes sandstone in the Connecticut River valley, and in other parts of Connecticut and Massachusetts perhaps some limestone or marble, and dozens of others. It is not unusual to find one great boulder of entirely different composition from all the others in the vicinity, proving the theory of scientists is correct that they were brought here from a distance. The color of the ordinary granite as found in old stonewalls is a sort of gray, and if the wall runs through the woods, it is usually covered with mosses and lichens.

When were these old-time walls, the antiques of New England, built, and who built them? You and I stand beside an old moss-covered one, made of the heaviest of boulders and say, "Who ever had the patience to put up such monuments as these?"

One writer answers thus: "Those first settlers had a terrible rage to conquer by toil all that they saw; they moved in where was virgin timber; the Devil of Puritan religion was after them; babies were coming and corn must be planted; the log house must be built, stumps

PREFACE.

There is a sadness connected with the passing of the rural school. The memories of our childhood home are scarcely more tender, more cherished, and more sacred than the memories of our early school days. One or two more generations will pass on and then even the location of these little early institutions will be forgotten.

These are surely the schools about which Lowell wrote "whose door, in summer, stands open wide, and shows, hanging on either hand, rows of straw-hats and bonnets that look as if they had done good service. * * * *

The a-b abs of little voices, long since hushed in the mold, or ringing now in the pulpit, at the bar, or in the senate chamber, come back to the ear of memory. * * * *

This little building, and others like it, were an original kind of fortification invented by the founders of New England. They are the martello towers that protect our coast. This was the great discovery of our Puritan forefathers."

Is it not fitting that we preserve for future generations, an historical sketch, or at least a picture of some of the schools that have dotted Connecticut's countrysides for more than a century and have played such an important part in shaping the lives of so many of her sons and daughters?

THE SCHOOLS OF GREENFIELD IN GENERAL AND THE CENTER SCHOOL IN PARTICULAR

The story of Greenfield's schools, if told in detail, is a long and interesting one. Little do the pupils know as they sit at their desks in the school today, of the historic interest of their institution. Founded in colonial days, fifty years before the beginning of the struggle for independence, and served by a long line of men and women of distinction, what an inspiration is an institution with such a history, not only to the pupil, but to the citizens of the community!

The parish of Greenfield was set apart from Fairfield in 1725. The first business of the new parish was to settle a preacher of the Gospel; the next business was to arrange for a school. Some years before the new parish had been separated from Fairfield, a small building had been erected on the common, in all probability for school purposes. So many of the earliest records of the town and of the mother church (which were practically one in the beginning) have been lost or destroyed, that we have no way of learning just when the cause of education first received attention in Greenfield, but Schenck's History of Fairfield states that as early as 1703 an exchange of land was made with Joseph Bradley in order that a school might be maintained there.

By vote of the new parish Nov. 11, 1725, a school was ordered to be kept six months of the year in the same building that was being used as a meeting-house. It was a small plain shingled structure of one room 18 by 20 feet with three windows, and was heated in winter from an open fireplace. This building that served as a church for several years, and as a school for more than one hundred years, stood near the south-west corner of the present school green. The old parish record states that sheep-proprietors used this building on Monday and Friday nights as a place to "let their sheep", so we can think of Greenfield's first school-building as a busy place not only six or seven days a week, but evenings as well.

For five years the only school in Greenfield parish was at the center and was kept only six months of the year. In 1730 it was decided to keep a school in the parish twelve months as follows: four months in the center or "general school-house," four months at Hull's Farms, and four months at Banks' Farms

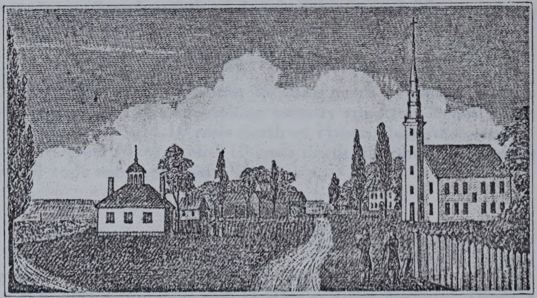
(later Banks' South and Banks' North districts). Some years later another section of Greenfield parish, Lyon's Farms (now Lyon's Plains) was provided with a school, and for many years these four were the only schools in Greenfield parish. According to the records we must suppose that one school-master served for all four, teaching three or four months at the center, then moving on to Hull's Farms where he taught three months, then to Banks' Farms for three months, and finally to Lyon's Farms for two months. One thing is certain, the children of these early days were not over-burdened with schooling.

School matters were voted on annually at the parish meeting, and the school was usually ordered to be kept by a "good, able and sufficient" master; they further voted that what the "country money" lacked of paying for the school, should be paid by the scholars in proportion as they attended, a method that continued many years and is well remembered by the older residents.

The Greenfield center school was sometimes called the "school at Bradley's Farms". Being almost surrounded by Bradleys who were all extensive land-holders, we can easily understand why it was so called. In 1746 five schools were ordered kept, the new one being called "Burr's Quarter". The school at Lyon's Farms was provided for regularly until 1756, and also one at "Gilbert's Quarter" adjoining on the east, until 1763, when these sections became parts of other parishes and withdrew from Greenfield's supervision.

It was quite common to order a school kept four months by a master and six by a mistress,—this method giving the master a chance to work on his farm during the busy season; it also provided a man during the winter months when the school was attended by many big farmer boys who perhaps could not be so easily managed by a young lady.

Schools were ordered at Hoyden's Hill, Bulkley's and Deerfield between 1770 and 1772, and Banks' North, or Sherwood's District as it was formerly called, soon after, making eight schools under the direction of Greenfield parish. This method of school management continued until 1796, when in compliance with an act of the General Assembly, each district became responsible for its own school, and thus began the old district system so well remembered by most of us, which continued in use for nearly one hundred years. A committee appointed to lay out districts reported as follows:



Picture from Barber's History. The artist stands on north-east corner of school green. Dr. Dwight's Academy at left; farther down the green, the old district school; in center of picture, Walter Bradley's store with his ox-cart alongside; then to the right, the home of Charles Nichols (later the Milbank place); and finally the old church facing the east.

"At a meting of the inhabitants of the parish of Greenfield, legally warned, we, the subscribers were appointed a committee for the purpose of dividing and limiting the several school districts in said parish; having met according to our said appointment, we apportioned and set off the inhabitants of said parish to the respective districts and bounded them in the following manner, viz:

a committee to lay out these districts."

These districts as laid out above, remained practically unchanged for nearly one hundred years, or while the old district system of school management was in force. Where the bounds are not mentioned on one or more sides of a district, it is understood that the district extends to the adjoining parish or town.

Many of the bounds mentioned above are quite familiar to us today. Sturges Highway, Great Brook, and Cricket Brook are still found on maps of the town. Sherwood Brook is now Brown's Brook; Dr. Hosea Hulbutt's was the home of the late Henry Bradley; Jacob White's was at the top of White's Hill; Daniel Hull's was at or near the present residence of the late Harry Hull; Stratton's was on a knoll near Brown's Brook where now is a house occupied by a Mr. Hendricks; Abijah Merwin's was the most southerly house on Merwin's Lane; and so on. An excellent map showing each school district in colors may be found in "An Atlas of New York and Vicinity" published in 1867 by Beers, Ellis and Soule, copies of which are in several homes in Greenfield and in the Pequot Library of Southport.

There is no record in existence which gives a list of the many school-masters and mistresses who taught in the center school or in any of the outlying sections of the parish. It is doubtful if there is a person living today who attended, as a pupil, the original old brown school-house on Greenfield green, as it became unfit for use and was abandoned somewhere about 1845 or a little earlier. In a recent book entitled "Irish School-masters of the Colonies", we learn that some years previous to the Revolution the Greenfield School was taught by William Heron, and that after serving Greenfield, he became quite noted in other Connecticut towns not only as an educator but as a surveyor. So we really know the name of one old-time Irish school-master who taught in this old building and was "good, able and sufficient", and if those who preceded him and those who succeeded him were of as high a typé, our dear grand-fathers and grand-mothers must have been well trained.

Another teacher probably previous to 1786, was Joseph Bulkley, grand-father of the late Mrs. Hetty Harrison. He taught about two years. Ezekiel Webb who was educated under Dr. Dwight was teaching in 1800 and 1801 and probably earlier. Abel Wakeman taught the school in 1802 an 1803 and perhaps other years. Later a Miss Mather, who boarded at Dr. Blakeman's, taught for a while as is evidenced by a letter which she wrote now in the possession of Mrs. Rebecca Jennings. We are also reasonably sure that the old-time school-masters Abram Sherwood and Walter O. Merwin taught the little center school at least during winter seasons. But we must forego the pleasure of recording the great majority of teachers from 1725 and earlier up to nearly 1845. There is a record-book of Greenfield schools in the town vault at Fairfield, but it is mostly a record of payments made towards the support of the various schools in the Greenfield parish. It mentions the names of many committee-men and a few teachers.

The following is an extract from the autobiography of the late Mrs. Mary Nichols Milbank:

"I first attended school in a little building that stood just south of the flag-pole. It was sold to Samuel Grant and is still in the yard. No doubt it was the first school in Greenfield. The door was on the south side, the big stone fire-place directly in front. I do not think I went there long as I do not remember anything about the teachers. I think I must have been under Miss Mary Freeman next. Rev. Nathaniel Freeman preached here and lived in Charles Bradley's house. His daughter Mary had a little school in the ball-room. In all the old houses the rear chamber was the length of the house, left undivided for balls. I remember there was a little box stove in one corner and benches for us to sit on. I have no remembrance of books, but she taught me to knit a stocking, the foot not more than an inch long.

"Mr. Freeman had a singing-school later, used a bass viol and one of the hymns we sang was:

'There is a greasy bed, a cold and gloomy cell,
In which some youthful head reclined must surely dwell.'

I cannot remember that these lines disturbed my rest, but they would not meet with favor in these days."

We wish we knew more of the manner of teaching in Colonial days. It is quite safe to say that methods were very different from those in use today with schools so thoroughly graded. We can make a guess at the subjects taught; for history states that the three R's occupied most of the time with some Spelling and Geography thrown in for good measure. Some of the old records indicate that Spelling may not have been very popular for we find these and many more mis-spelled words: "mony, surtiffycate, att, voate, fech, Fryday, raite, siffisent, sofichent, vallue, reasonabel, corlect, pade, don, eitch, trubbell, agorned, Wensday, destricks, ordernation, seaven, forfit, etc."

By 1845 or earlier, the district school-house at Greenfield centre had become so old and out of repair as to be unfit for school purposes. It was then sold to Samuel Grant, who moved it to his place down the hill, where it was long used as a shoe-shop. The property is now owned by Levi Cobb who pulled down the last remnant of the historic institution in 1921.

Let us now leave the story of the little brown schoolhouse that stood on the southwest end of the green for so many years and turn back to the time when Greenfield began to have two educational institutions side by side. Rev. Timothy Dwight who a little later became Dr. Dwight was called to become pastor of the Greenfield church in 1783. Soon after his settlement in Greenfield he started a private school in the south-east room of the old Hubbell place at the foot of the hill where he taught the higher branches. In 1786 a few friends helped him to build the Academy on the green where now stands the so-called "Dwight School".

This Academy which in Dr. Dwight's day became so noted, was a one-story building 34 by 22 feet with four sloping roofs, surmounted by cupola and vane. The building had three windows on each of the two sides and a chimney on each end with fireplace in each. The door on the west opened into a small vestibule which led to the main school-room. As many as fifty or sixty students were sometimes in attendance. This institution was really more than an academy. It was almost a college in itself, for the subjects taught were the same as those taught at Yale or any other college, including Latin, Greek, surveying, navigation, spherics, calculus, and Newton's principia. Sometimes a student from Yale came down to take a year under Dr. Dwight. Many out-of-town students boarded at Dr. Dwight's or in other near-by homes in the community. There were students from the South and Middle States and some from Canada, South America and France. It was one of the first of higher institutions to admit and encourage the education of young ladies. More than 1000 students are said to have studied under Dr. Dwight in this building.

After twelve years of service in the community, Dr. Dwight was called to the presidency of Yale College and Rev. Jeremiah Day, D.D. became head of Greenfield's higher institution of learning until he too was called to become a tutor at Yale and later a president. Then followed Rev. Horace Holly, Dr. Samuel Blatchford, Mr. Brainard, Rev. William Belden and Rev. Nathaniel Freeman. Rev. Mr. Belden was the last of the more noted teachers, and as the years went by and teacher after teacher passed on, the once famous institution founded by Dr. Dwight, began to decline in popularity and high educational standing. Barber's History written in 1835 states that at that time the Academy was devoted exclusively to young ladies, and was a "respectable" institution. These were its last days as an academy.

Its career as a higher institution seems to have been finished. Repairs had been neglected and the building began to look shabby. But the old district school-house near by was worse, so Dr. Dwight's Academy was used for a number of years as the district school-house. As far as is known the only persons living today who attended district school in this building during the latter years of its existence, are Rev. George W. Banks and Mrs. Sally M. Banks. In this connection we quote again from the autobiography of Mrs. Mary N. Milbank:

"When the old school-house was unfit for use, the academy built for Dr. Dwight's school was used. In his time it was in one large room with large stone fire-places at each end; in my time it was divided and heated by a box stove.

Abram Sherwood, Walter O. Merwin, and Zalmon Wakeman were teachers during the winter terms; in the summer girls took their places. The frequent change of teachers would not be favored now. Clarissa Bulkley told Mother she thought the words I used in reading were as good as those in the book. Mother did not agree with her. Sally Baldwin Canfield had a private school sometimes in the house, sometimes in the shop. I took my first music lessons of her—a waste of time."

The following so full of interest concerning Greenfield's educational institutions of long ago, is a portion of a letter recently written by Rev. George W. Banks, a native of Greenfield but now of Springfield, Mass. While rich in years, he possesses a remarkably clear memory.

"I gladly comply with your request in regard to the teachers of earlier days in Dwight Academy and have put down all that now comes to memory that seems of any importance.,"

It is a most interesting fact that four of the presidents of Yale University were connected in some manner with the educational interests of Greenfield Hill. These men were the first President Timothy Dwight, President Jeremiah Day, President Theodore Dwight Woolsey, and the second President Timothy Dwight. The terms of service of these four men covered a century, from 1795 to 1899, with the exception of the fifteen years of President Noah Porter's service, between those of the two last mentioned above. President Dwight's illustrious success as Principal of the Academy which he founded, needs no further mention. It was so great that it is said the trustees of the College called Dr. Dwight to its head, for fear that Greenfield Academy would eclipse Yale.

After he left, Jeremiah Day took his place as Principal. He was a graduate of Yale of the class of 1795. I do not know how long he taught, probably not more than a year or two, for he was soon called back, as tutor, Professor, and finally President, holding that office for twenty-nine years. When I entered college in 1859 he was still living,—a venerable man of over ninety years. I remember him well as he sat in the north gallery of the old College Chapel on Sundays. He always wore a long black cloak summer and winter, and seemed to us boys "One of the Ancient of Days." Beside him sat Professor Benjamin Silliman, world renowned scientist, whose native place should have been Fairfield, only that his parents, just before his birth, had gone to Trumbull, on account of the invasion and destruction of Fairfield by the British army in the Revolutionary War.

Theodore Dwight Woolsey when a little boy, perhaps about twelve years of age, lived for a while as a pupil in the family of Rev. Mr. Belden who was pastor of the Greenfield church from 1812 to 1821, and who taught in the Academy. Without doubt young Woolsey was one of the Academy scholars. He was a nephew of Dr. Dwight's and was President of Yale for twenty-seven years.

The younger Timothy Dwight neither taught nor was taught in Greenfield Academy, but his father was born in Greenfield and perhaps was old enough to go to the school before the family moved to New Haven; so he may properly come into the list of Greenfield's educational interests. It is a wonderful record of which the village may justly be proud.

I have but the faintest recollection of the little old brown school-house that was afterwards moved to Mr. Grant's place down the hill. I never went to school in it. But I have heard my father say that his sister Eliza Gregory Banks of Easton taught one season there and that among her pupils were Catherine Ann Blakeman and Mary Nichols (who later became Mrs. Milbank).

I began what I persuade myself to call my education, in Dwight Academy. It must have been then between 45 and 50 years old and was in a dilapidated condition. How well I remember it! Unpainted, doorway and entry for wood, at west end; one room for school, fire-place and chimney at east end; fire-place bricked or boarded up, never used in my day; a rectangular box iron stove, under which at close of each day in winter 20 or 30 ink-bottles were placed. A board fastened edgewise to north wall ran the length of the room serving for desk; under it a smaller one as shelf to hold books and slates when not in use; the smooth and soft side of a slab in front for a seat, not too smooth, and not too soft, with no back; for recitation, turn around and lean against the edge of the desk,—an easy position compared with the other; same arrangement on the south side of room, boys on north side, girls on south. On the east end each side of fire-place were the choice seats for the favored few, because you leaned against the wall and had the desk in front of you, there being room for three or four on each side. Teacher's desk was at west end. Two smaller slabs and lower, each side of the stove, were for the little tots, these also without backs,—seats of torture. There was no cellar beneath the building. Several boards of the floor were movable so that we could reach down and fish in the dirt for slate-pencils which had fallen through the cracks of the floor. Such was the Dwight Academy as to the outer form in my day. A like decline as to its educational standard had befallen it. It was no longer a real Academy or even a select school, but an ordinary district school like thousands scattered over New England. Grading was a word unknown. With each new teacher you went over practically the same ground in studies as with the previous one; and so the multiplication table and the three R's were drilled into you.

My first teacher, I have been told was a Mr. Morgan. I do not recall him, but he was a very popular teacher as well he might be, for it was his custom at the close of every term to give each of his pupils a present. My impression is that he taught several years in Greenfield. I do not know of his life afterwards. It must have been during his administration that a great event occurred wihch I do remember, and it is among almost the first of my recollections,—the pulling down of the old church commonly called Dwight's Church. This was in 1845 and I was six years old. The steeple was at the east end of the church and was enormously tall, much taller than the present church spire, a land-mark for vessels going up and down the sound. It was said that one could see East Rock in New Haven from top platform. (I very much doubt it.) When the workmen came to getting it down, long ropes were attached to the top, the timbers near the bottom having been sawed through or nearly so, school was let out and all the children were allowed to take hold at the farthest ends and all men and children pulled the steeple to the ground. It fell with a tremendous crash on the green parallel with the road from the store to Capt. Baldwin's corner. No wonder a small boy would remember such an event.

I cannot remember who succeeded Mr. Morgan, but somewhere a little later my father's cousin, Mr. Edwin Banks, taught for a term or more. I am positive about that, for he gave me the only thrashing I remember any teacher to have administered me. It was justly deserved. He afterwards became one of the leading citizens and merchants of Bridgeport and died about twenty years ago.

The next teacher I recall was Mr. Fayerweather. He was a superior teacher making it his life-work, and not as so many teachers did a temporary thing until other pursuits opened. He had considerable literary ability. I have in my possesion an acrostic poem which he wrote for one of the girls in the school. By the way,—that girl afterwards became my wife—Eliza Frances Banks. No wonder I think it the finest poem in the English language. Mr. Fayerweather had a son John and a daughter Jane, both of whom I think became teachers, and may have taught in Greenfield, but I am not sure when or where. I have no knowledge of the later history of the family.

Somewhere about this time when I was eight or nine years old, another event stands out clearly in memory. I do not know who was the teacher. One day at the noon intermission some few of us, scamps, conceived the brilliant idea of setting the old Academy afire. I do not know how I happened to be in it, for I usually went home at noon. But at this distance of time, I am willing to confess that I was the ringleader in the affair and will absolve the other fellows. We piled a lot of shavings, kindlings and wood right in the middle of the floor and "set her off". Fortunately, just as the floor was catching fire some of the older boys came in and quickly extinguished the conflagration. The subsequent proceedings of that afternoon are not clearly in mind, but if we did not get what was coming to us, then there was a miscarriage of justice. I have no doubt we got it good and plenty. So I attempted to achieve fame by helping to pull down Dr. Dwight's Church and trying to burn up Dr. Dwight's Academy. Such a boy might have been looked on as headed straight for Wethersfield.

Two other teachers I remember in the old building. Mr. Abram Sherwood was one. He lived on the north-east corner of the cross-roads above the Grange Hall. He was an old teacher having taught in various schools in the parish for many winters. There was also Mr. Walter O. Merwin. He was one of the best of teachers. I owe a great deal to him. He was also one of my teachers in the Sunday-School.

I must have had other teachers in the old Academy, but I cannot recall any more names. How I regret I did not keep a record of names not only of teachers but of fellow-pupils. I earnestly urge each pupil in the High School now to procure a blank book and make such a record. In after years it will be invaluable.

When I was about twelve years old Mr. Zalmon Wakeman opened a select school near his house on the east street by the Bronson barns, and I attended that school for several terms. I began the study of Latin with him. He was the father of Mr. Howard Wakeman now of Southport. Later I was two winters at Staples Academy, Easton, and one term at Mr. Adams' Academy, Green's Farms. Sometime during these years the Dwight Academy building was moved up to Mr. Uriah Perry's and used by him for a workshop. If it is still in existence it ought to be put in good repair and kept as a memorial.

In the new building which took its place, the first teacher that I recall was Mr. Henry L. Hubbell of Wilton, Conn., a graduate of Yale of the class of 1856 and a superior teacher. He afterwards became President of Lake Charles College, La. and died in 1908. He must have taught in Greenfield the winter of 1856-7. He was followed the next year by Mr. James B. Nixon a graduate of Union College, who afterwards became a banker in Ft. Smith, Arkansas, and died there about fifteen years ago.

The next year Mr. Myron N. Chamberlain, Yale, class of 1857, taught. He became a most successful physician in Cheshire, Conn. He died in 1899 in his carriage while on his way to visit a patient, Mr. Miles Beardsley of North Branford, Conn., a member of the same class in Yale, followed him. He became a lawyer and died in 1887.

I did not attend the school of these two last named, but recited to them privately. They boarded at my father's house. I was myself then teaching, first in the Hull's Farms schoolhouse on the boundary line between Fairfield and Westport, and later in Mill Plain school, at the same time preparing for college. Of later teachers I know little, simply having met some of them on my occasional visits to Greenfield; so I am afraid I cannot give any more information.

Pardon the personal note in what I have written. Best wishes to all connected with the Greenfield School.

George Wallace Banks."

The year 1854 stands out in the study of Greenfield's educational institutions as the dividing line between the old and the new. The old district school-house after more than a century of use had worn out; the Academy built by Dwight, after sixty-eight years of service was dilapidated too. Both were removed from the green and a new "Academy" erected on the site of the latter. The funds for the new building were obtained largely from the sale of the school lot of six acres, located north side of road just west of the present Country-club house.

This new "Academy" as it was first called, is well remembered by many of us. In fact a considerable portion of it still stands today and constitutes nearly one-half of the present school building. It was originally a two story building of two rooms built with the idea of continuing the "Academy" as a private school on the second floor, and using the ground floor as the district school, a plan that was in a sense carried out for many years. Older pupils who wished to take advanced work in the select school on second floor, could do so by paying a small fee of perhaps $5.00 a term.

To try to give a detailed historic account of this new so-called Academy which stood unchanged in external appearance from 1854 for more than forty years, would require a volume instead of a few pages. The list of teachers is a long one. For a score or more years, the private school of higher branches was continued on upper floor with district school beneath; later on the upper room was used for entertainments and lectures, and a stage was built across one end. This room also served as a meeting-place for the Sons of Temperance and the Library Association.

Aside from the teachers mentioned above by Rev. George W. Banks are the following:

William Dwight Waterman
Charles Shelton
Park Hill
R. C. Loveridge
Miss Helen Morehouse (who wore her hair in a waterfall, and, it is said, dyed it with shoe-blacking)
Lame Mr. Gregory
Susan A. Ferguson
Sarah E. Grant

And in the district school, the following have served:

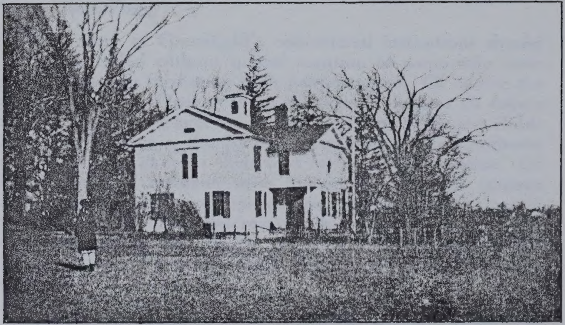
William Wakeman
Mary Price Dimon
Elizabeth Smith
Irene Wakeman
David B. Wheeler

Henry Hull
Anna Belle Banks
James Wilson, father of ex-mayor Wilson of Bridgeport
Rev. Marcus Burr
Arthur Bibbins
Hetty Allis
Allie Wilson
Miss Feibel
Joseph J. Rose, who afterward became city attorney of Bridgeport
William R. Purple, who never wore an overcoat and who always went on a run
William E. Gardner, who has served as principal of Meriden schools for past thirty years
Willis Parker
J. T. Corlew.

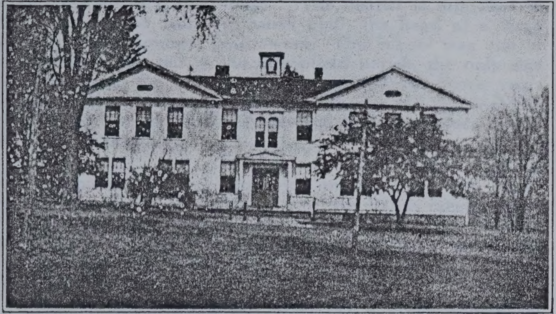
All of the above taught in the two-room building previous to 1897 which was the year that marked the beginning of another chapter in Greenfield's school history. In accordance with an act of the legislature, all district schools of the town of Fairfield were taken over by the town as early as 1887 and managed by a School Board; but it was not until ten years later that most of the out-lying district school-buildings in the vicinity of Greenfield were abandoned. Then the pupils of Deerfield, Burr's, Banks South, Bulkley's, Hull's Farms, and later Wilson's Mills and Hoyden's Hill districts were transported in wagons or trucks to the center school at Greenfield. A larger school-house became a necessity. So the Greenfield Academy was doubled in size and became a four-room building with four teachers.

About the same time all schools of the town were graded. Now, after serving the required time and doing the required work at Greenfield, the pupil is given a certificate showing that he or she is prepared to enter any High School in the country. For nearly twenty years all schools of the town have been under the immediate supervision of a Superintendent of Schools.

The rapid increase in population, especially among the foreign classes for several years taxed Greenfield's four-room school-house to the utmost; so in 1921 the building was doubled again. At the present time we have a building of which we may well be proud with six teachers in charge.



Greenfield School in 1898



Greenfield School of today

The school principals since 1897 have been the following: P. E. Cliff, Stanley B. Covert, A. J. Wells, Clifford I. Parshley, Mrs. Parshley, Amos H. Bowers, Sylvia N. Johnson and Louisabelle Lyon. Other teachers who have served the Greenfield school during these later years are: A. Maria Wakeman, Ada F. Jennings, Mrs. Lucy Bradley, Julia B. Banks, Anna E. Rogers, Louise Glazier, Lena Fanton, Caroline Griffith, Louise B. Cowles, Edith Nettleton, Julia Coffin, Mabel G. Fuller, Ida B. Keene, Emily W. Bissell, Rebecca Clifford, Mrs. Dorothy Wheeler, Mrs. Grace Jennings, Maude Prentice. The present force of teachers are as follows: Louisabelle Lyon, Principal, Bertha Staples, Mrs. Grace Wheeler, Maude E. Hallock, Helen Pease, Viola Fogg.

Our story of Greenfield's educational institutions should not be concluded without special mention of some who have been foremost in furthering their advancement. Of course the name of Timothy Dwight as an educator outshines all others in the days of long ago. In later years there were the Baldwin's, the Bronson's, the Nichols', our own Gov. Tomlinson and others who gave of their best for education's cause. Of those Greenfield residents who during the last half century have unstintingly given of their energies and their talents, many times without any financial reward, and whose names should be recorded in history, are Dr. M. V. B. Dunham and Sheriff Simeon Pease, either as school visitors or members of the School Board.

We can only hope that the boys and girls of Greenfield, educated under the influence of such a historic institution, will become, tomorrow, leaders among men and women of the world, and so bring honor to themselves and to the place which gave them birth.

Hull's Farms District School.

The parish of Greenfield voted on Dec. 11, 1730, that a school should be kept four months of the year in this section which was at first called "Mr. Hull's farms". Sometimes it was called "the lower school-house". The district is supposed to have been named from Nathaniel Hull, the head of a large family and a prominent land-owner. This school was one of the first to be started in the Greenfield parish, the only one older being at the center. For seventy-five or more years school was kept only four months of the year and in a building which stood just north of the Sherwood Wakeman place on the west side of road.

The parish of Greenfield voted on Jan. 10, 1726, "there shall be two sign-posts set up to warn the parish meetings on; one att ye meeting-house and one att Hull's farms so called". So we can imagine the sign-post that once stood on or near the corners opposite the residence of Mr. J. E. Banks.

Early in the nineteenth century, by a rearrangement of districts the school was moved to the corner of Sturges Highway and Hulls Farms Road, on the line between Fairfield and Westport and there was used jointly by the two towns. Being on the Westport side it was really Westport property and was then known as East Long Lots. The building was built originally with roofs sloping in four directions, but was later remodelled. For many years it looked as shown in the picture which was taken in 1893. The pupils as shown beginning on left are: Francis Blade, Jessie Totten, Sadie Sherwood, Clarence Nichols, Willis Mills, Grace Bulkley, Joseph Coskey, Lee Thomas, Howard Mills, Nelson Bulkley. The teacher, Miss Emma Jennings, is standing in the rear.

About twenty-two years ago the school-house was sold to Joseph Kokoski of Southport and used in building a barn. The pupils are now transported, those from the Fairfield side to Greenfield Hill, and those from the Westport side to Greens Farms. The knoll on which the school stood has been excavated, so the only familiar thing about the place is the boulder on the opposite side of the street, and even that has toppled from its former position.

Some of the teachers during the last forty years of the school's existence were:

- Miss Wheeler
- Emily Weed

Banks' South District School.

A school was voted for "Banks Farms" or "Mr. Banks' farms" as early as 1730, and the district was known by that name for nearly one hundred years or until the name "Banks North" was applied to the district on the northeast; then this became "Banks South". The name has always been most appropriate. The Banks from whom it was at first named was Benjamin, and there have always been several families of Banks living in the immediate neighborhood.

In the early days it was often spoken of as the "school-house at the fifteen acres." Whether that term meant the quantity of cleared land near the school-house, or something else, no one now knows.

Neither can anyone tell at this time the location of the first school-house, but it certainly was not far distant from the site of the later building. The district is supposed to have had only two buildings; the first which served for more than a hundred years, and the second, perhaps built between 1840 and 1850, which served until the school was closed and pupils transported to Greenfield center. The abandoned building was sold about 1900 to Hezekiah B. Ogden for $22.50, and stands today on his property only a few rods north of its original location. The building was never painted. It is occupied at the present time by a tenant, as the wood-pile and buck-saw in the picture indicate.

Among the many teachers in this school were the following:

- Bradley Perry
- Walter O. Merwin
- Arthur Merwin
- Harriet Merwin
- Cordelia Hill
- Martha Hull
- Abram Sherwood
- William Wakeman
- Edson Beers
- Amelia Banks
- Charlotte Bennett
- Abbie J. Meeker
- Marietta Banks
- Henry Burr Ogden
- John C. Lobdell
- Clarissa Banks
- Morris Gray
- William H. Grumman

- Charles Silliman
- George Gillette

- Edgar Wheeler
- Belle Gray
- Hattie Jarvis

Burr's District School.

The first school to the northeast of Greenfield center was known as Burr's Quarter. The school-house was located on Burr's corners, which were the four corners near the present residence of Rufus B. Wales. This section of the parish is first mentioned in the records of the meeting of Nov. 17, 1746, when the following vote was passed:

"that Burr's Quarter shall begin at ye upright highway taking in Joseph Burr and Timothy Burr, and so eastward, excepting Joseph Hill, Lieut. Wakeman, and Thad. Wheeler."

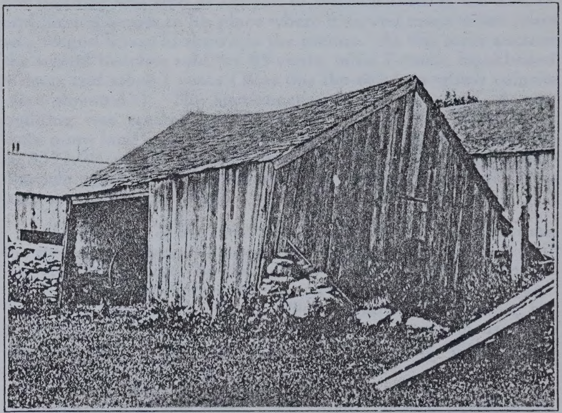
A vote of the parish in 1751 refers again to this school-house. It is as follows:

"that there shall be a warning for all parish meetings set up at ye mouth of ye highway at ye school-house below Tim. Burr's."

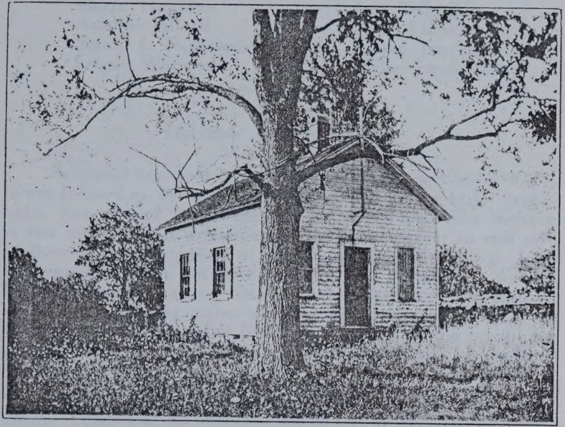
Again in 1752 the following vote was passed:

"that the eastern part of Greenfield shall begin at ye second cross-highway and so far as ye long highway that leads by Jos. Burr's and those adjoining on ye west side of said long highway, and draw their full proportion of money according to their list and bounds."

The residence of Timothy Burr referred to above was on or near the place where Eugene Burr now lives. The Joseph Burr referred to lived where Percy Anderson now lives.



The first Burr's School in use as a wagon-house



The last Burr's School

In 1771 a committee appointed by the parish laid out several new districts including Hoyden's Hill and Bulkley's, and divided the former Burr's Quarter into two: Deerfield and Burr's. Deerfield school-house was built to the north and Burr's school-house was moved westward to the north side of the road just east of the residence of John B. Gaul; later a small plot of land was purchased and the building moved to the south side of street just slightly east of residence of Fred R. Jennings. This was Burr's District school until 1862, when it was thought advisible to erect a more modern building. The old building was sold at auction to William Bulkley for $11.11 and moved across to his place where it served many more years as a wagon-house as shown in the picture. At this same auction the school benches sold for 63 cents, table 7 cents, blackboard 8 cents and stool 3 cents (Was this the stool on which culprits were elevated?). The auctioneer's fee was 50 cents. A new building was erected by Charles W. Wilson for $298.00; a little more land and school fixtures brought the entire expense to $372.00, which was paid by a district tax. These two buildings are supposed to be the only ones ever erected for school purposes in this district.

The picture of the later building was taken about the time the town took charge of the district. When it was decided that the children should be transported to the center school at Greenfield Hill, the property was disposed of at auction again. This was about 1900. W. B. Hill purchased the building for $75.00 and moved it to his farm where it is still in use as a tenement house. The land was sold to Rufus B. Wales. One lone elm tree now remains to mark the place.

The district has often been called, though perhaps not officially "Brush Pasture". Like most of the schools of the long ago, a man was usually chosen to teach during the winter and a lady for the summer term. Many old records of this school district were carefully preserved by the late Rufus B. Jennings and have recently been placed in the keeping of the Fairfield Historical Society.

Some of the old-time teachers from 1840 to 1870 were:

Harriet Gould
Peter Fayerweather
Miss Fanton
Miss Wheeler
Augusta Nichols
Edward Burr
David B. Wheeler

Rufus B. Jennings
Mary E. Brown
Mary L. Bradley
Ann Jane Burr
George Wakeman
Mary Dimon
Jane Gray

Edson Gould
Daniel E. Gould
Anna D. Banks
Horace Burr
Marietta Banks
Martha Nichols
Abram Sherwood
Sarah E. Gould
N. B. Hill

and no doubt many others.

Later teachers were:

Marcus Burr
Maria Hopkins
Adaline Alfred
Sarah J. Fayerweather
Edgar Wheeler
William R. Purple
Ada Belle Burr
Sarah Hopkins
Emma Jennings
Millie Jennings

Deerfield District School.

A school was first built in the Deerfield section in 1771. It was located on the north side of the road near a little "pond-hole" just west of the present residence of Miss Alice Nichols. A few years later it was moved around the corner to east side of Burr's Street alongside of land that later belonged to John Wakeman, now the property of Mr. Craik. Here it stood some hundred years or more. Many of us remember the historic structure. The long cedar shingles with which its sides were covered made it the most picturesque school in the town. No doubt it was the first and only school-building ever built in Deerfield.

The door on the south opened directly into the school-room. There was no "entry". At times, in days gone by, the building accommodated as many as sixty scholars. Many years ago on the opposite side of the street, George Lewis kept a blacksmith-shop. Whether it stood beneath a spreading chestnut tree or not we cannot tell at this distant day, but we are sure that

"Children coming home from school
Looked in at the open door;
They loved to see the flaming forge,
And hear the bellows roar,
And catch the burning sparks that flew
Like chaff from a threshing floor."

But age began to tell on the old school-house, for we read in the annual report of the School Committee presented to the town Oct. 7, 1889: "Deerfield school-house is a disgrace to the town; no civilized community should think of using such a structure for the education of their children." And again the school report for 1897-98 calls Deerfield school a cherished souvenir of ye olden time". These were the last days of the old institution. The door was soon closed and pupils were transported to Greenfield Hill. The building gradually tumbled until today there is only a little pile of earth with a few remnants of old timbers to mark the place where it stood. Miss Laura Dowd has in her possession a perfect specimen of shingle, nearly three feet in length, taken from the building before its decay.

Deerfield School

An example that shows how generation after generation attended the same school may be found in the Dowd family. Miss Laura Dowd attended Deerfield in her day; her mother and her aunt were pupils in their time, the latter being a teacher there; their father, Orlando Nichols studied there and their mother, Laura Osterbanks had been a teacher there and Orlando's father, Alexander Scudder Nichols was also a teacher there, making three generations of teachers and four generations of pupils in the same school, a most unusual record.

Besides the teachers mentioned above are the following beginning somewhere about 1840:

Peter Fayerweather
Sarah Maria Nichols
Walter O. Merwin
Barach Burr
James Cole
Joseph Bennett
Peter Bulkley
Rufus B. Jennings
Jennie Ogden
Miss Winton
Jonathon Banks
Augustus Sherwood
Seth Bradley
Arthur Banks
Marcus Burr
Ida Ogden
Sadie Morehouse

The following served during the later years of the school:

Isabelle Tucker
William R. Purple
Katie Hull
Royal S. Banks
Ada Belle Burr
Jennie Meeker
Addie Annis
Harriet Jennings
Maria Hopkins
Nellie Booth
Millie Jennings
Edith Kerrigan

Hoyden's Hill District School.

This district in many of the old records was called Hoytt's Hill. A school was first started here in 1771. The location was near the Gilbert Wakeman place, from which it was moved years ago to a new location on the highway adjacent to property of Burr Hawkins.

The story is told that many years ago a man actually "stole" the Hoyden's Hill school-house and "got away with it". It seems that the school building was alongside of highway which separated the towns of Fairfield and Easton, but stood on the Easton side and really belonged to that town, being used by residents of both towns. One summer a man by the name of Wakeman living on the Fairfield side was appointed as a committee to repair the building. He first hitched his oxen to it, drew it across the street into his own town and then made the repairs. It became Fairfield property and never went back.

It is supposed that the original school-house built in 1771 is the only one this district ever had. The building was of the crudest kind and the outside door opened directly into the school-room. It is evident from the picture that as an antique, it was unsurpased by any school in town except perhaps Deerfield. In 1889 at the time the town School Committee reported on the disgraceful condition of Deerfield school-house, they added "and Hoyden's Hill is not much better". But the building that had so long outlived its usefulness, served until 1897, the year that witnessed the closing of many smaller schools. The new school-house at Wilson's Mills then became the school for Hoyden's Hill pupils and the old building was sold some three years later to Alex. Allen who moved it to his place. It has since been destroyed.

Among the teachers of many years ago are the following:

Maria Bartram
Caroline Wheeler
Samuel Turney
Amelia Winton
Amelia Hansen
Mrs. Frank Acker
Josephine Webb
Horace Winton
Frank Seeley
Tillie Jennings
Minnie Darrow
George Corning

and in later years the following served:

William H. Grumman
Sarah J. Fayerweather
Frances Smith
Edgar Wheeler
Emma Osborn
Mamie Case
Emma W. Banks
Minnie F. Lewis and many others.

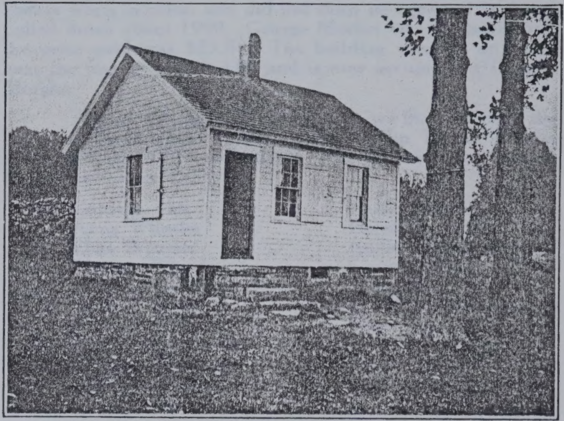
Bulkley's District School.

A school was voted to be kept near the residence of Daniel Bulkley in 1770. As usual the roadside was selected as the proper place. This time the location was in the angle formed by the meeting of two roads at the foot of the hill



Bulkley's School

Banks North School

just a few rods east of the present recidence of Dr. H. S. Miles. The district was named from Daniel Bulkley, whose home was east of the school on the lot now owned by John R. DeWitt, in front of which are rows of linden trees. Daniel Bulkley was the great-grandfather of the late Hetty J. Harrison, was a soldier in the French war, and was at the capture of Louisburg from the French in 1757.

Bulkley's district is supposed to have had only the one school-house, which no doubt had been remodelled and repaired many times. In later years it was kept neatly painted always white in color, and did not show its age until sold and pulled down about 1900. George Meeker was the buyer and the price paid was $25.00. The building was put up again near the top of White's Hill and is now occupied by Charles Morgan.

Among the teachers of long ago, we find recorded the names of Buckingham Sherwood and Phillip Tabour for the years 1801 and 1803 respectively. The following are some of the teachers since 1854:

Cordelia Hill
Anna Wheeler
Eliza Wheeler
Eleanor Wheeler
George Wakeman
William K. Shaw
Bradley Perry
Abram B. Sherwod
Lorenzo Johnson
Ebenezer Baker
Mr. Wilson

Hattie Banks
Helen Campbell
Annie Campbell
Emma Osborn
Alice Gray
A. Maria Wakeman
Maria Hopkins
Florence Jennings
Sarah Hopkins
Millie Jennings

Bank's North District School.

A school was first started in this section in or about the year 1780. Some of the most prominent families being Sherwoods, it was called for many years "Sherwood's District". Later on as the Banks name came into prominence in that section, the district became known as "Banks North". The first building erected for school purposes stood just north of the present school-house, by the side of the road, between where there is now a rock and the stone fence, and near the place where later on stood the blacksmith shop.

The building was most simple and plain with one room only, and not even a so-called "entry", such as the later buildings had. Some mischievous boys had at one time made a fire in the school-room and burned a hole through the floor. Although covered over, this hole stayed in the floor as long as the building was used for school purposes. In 1869 the old structure was sold to the late Jonathan Banks, who removed it to his property on the corner near his residence where it was rented as a tenement house; later it was moved near his barns and used for a wagon-house. Nothing remains of it today.

The present school building was erected on a lot purchased of Col. Horace Banks, the taxable property of the district being assessed to pay the bill. The property to the rear is now owned by Clarence H. Banks. The building remained unchanged in appearance until after the schools were taken over by the town. The picture taken in 1894 shows it as originally built except for the flag-pole which was new at that time. Later the building was enlarged by increasing the length, the width remaining the same.

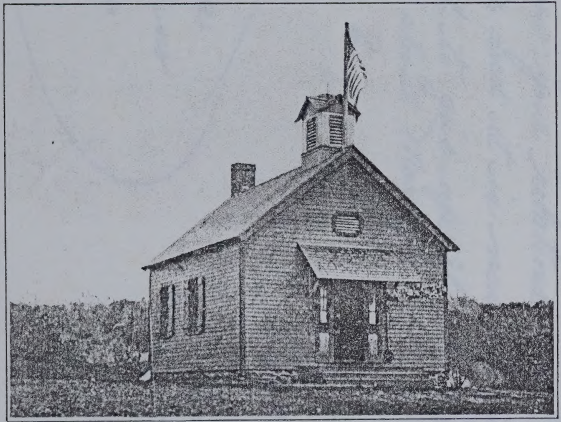
It is interesting to note that Banks North is the only outlying school in Greenfield that has continued in operation up to the present time. Why it has not been closed and the children transported to the center as in other sections, we cannot say. It may be that the residents and taxpayers of the district protested; or it may be it was retained on account of the goodly number of children in the immediate neighborhood. Only grades below the eighth are now taught here.

The records of this school under the old district system, have been carefully preserved by Mr. Frank Sherwood who for many years held various offices in the district and was always identified with school affairs.

The old-time teachers as far as the memory of the oldest inhabitants recall, beginning about 1846, are as follows:

Thursa Nichols
Cordelia Hill
Horace Smith
Sally Burr (Banks)
Samuel W. Banks
Rachel Meeker
T. Minot Banks
H. Bradley Coley
Jonathan Banks
John Merwin
Walter O. Merwin
Irene Wakeman
Augustus Sherwood
William Wakeman



Wilson's Mills School

Arthur Oakley
Wilbur Lyon
Henry Sherwood
Chauncey Wakeman
Wm. Henry Grumman
Heman Goodsell
Burritt Wheeler
Gershom Hill
Marietta Banks (Smith)
George Gillette
Esther Chapman
Charles R. Morehouse
Edgar Wheeler
Cora B. Bradley
Samuel Turney

Later teachers were:

Eudora Saunders
Emily Lewis
Louise Scofield
Harriet E. Jennings (Pease)
Ethel Sniffen
Ada Belle Burr
Lillian Lewis
Ada Jennings

and of course many others.

The present teacher is Mrs. Clara Jersey.

Wilson's Mills School.

Wilson's Mills School was built in 1897, the year which marked the closing of many smaller schools and the adoption of the school-wagon plan. It was thought a school at this place would accommodate the pupils of Hoyden's Hill, as well as parts of Deerfield and Burr's Districts. The corner lot opposite Wilson Brothers mill was purchased of Alonzo Staples for $200. and the attractive school-like building erected thereon. This building cannot boast of any remarkable history like many of the other schools of Greenfield, but it serves as a splendid example of the rapid change in methods of providing education in rural sections.

After only eleven years of usefulness it was closed forever as a school-house. Some three years ago the poperty was sold for approximately $1000. to Samuel Tipping who had recently purchased the Martin Jennings place adjoining on the north. The building is now used as a storehouse.

The following teachers served this institution:

Minnie Lewis
Sarah Hopkins
Jessie Lobdell
Emma Jennings
Elsie Sanford
Cora Plumb

Dear Carolyn:

I don't know whether you can help me or not, but I'm going to ask.

Enclosed in a copy of my letter dated Mar. 6, 1981 to your father's second wife. It shows what data I need about her and her daughter Marilyn. Since I got no answer, I phoned her on Jan. 15, 1982. She refused to give me any information.

I do not know your relations with your father and step-mother and it is none of my business, but I don't want to give up if I can get this needed data. Particularly about Marilyn.

Can you help?

Best regards,

Merwyn

at son's home in Georgia (Thomas)

Dear Mrs. Murwin:

Our Association is preparing Volume III of The Merwin Family in North America. Through some research and the capable assistance of Mr. Bernie Farmer of Edgerton, we have discovered that the Murwin family of Rock County, WI, are descendants of Miles [1] Merwin, our immigrant ancestor.

This is true even though your branch of the family spells the name with a "u" and others use an "e". In the 1600's in England, a form of handwriting called secretary's hand was in use. In that form of handwriting, the e was written like a u. Accordingly, some Merwins use a u and others an e.

Enclosed is a draft of the George Murwin line which connects your family with the line from Miles [1] Merwin. I would greatly appreciate it if you would give me any needed correction or addition to this draft so that the information may be entered as accurately as possible in our publication. Please fill in any blank spaces you can.

Where addresses are shown, I shall write those individuals for information about their immediate families.

Please understand there is no cost or obligation connected with this request. Persons born Merwins and their spouses are included in the book without charge. However, if you would like to become a member of our Association, we are enclosing a dues form for your convenience. We have over 600 members and have been in operation since 1956, published two volumes of genealogy detailing descendants of Miles [1]. We publish a newsletter three times a year to inform members of the doings of Merwin. We also hold regional and national reunions. One was held in Wausau, WI, a couple of years ago.

We are getting close to publication time for our new genealogy. I would appreciate your corrections and additions as soon as possible.

Best regards,

Merwyn R. Buchanan

UNITY

THE WORD Is CARING

By Ralph Rhea

In the beautifully written book "Peace of Mind" by Joshua Liebman, a whole chapter is devoted to the subject of "Loving one's self properly." This is not referring to any type of narcissism, but rather to the simple process of caring for one's self. How much do you care for your body, your mind, your thoughts, your feelings, and all that you are? Remember, when we truly care for ourself, we develop a greater sense of caring for others. Dear Mr. Bidwell

We are in the process of writing Volume III of The Merwin Family in North America and we recently discovered that you are descended from one Miles Merwin (born 1623) despite the difference in spelling of the family name.

We would like to include you and your family in the genealogy. In order to do so, would you please fill out the enclosed family record form and give us a brief biography of you and your spouse along the lines suggested below?

Please understand this is not a scam and there is no obligation on your part except we expect people, not born with the name Murwin, whose entries are in the book, to be interested enough in our Association to become a member. Dues are only $10 a year. A form is enclosed for your convenience. We want to include all known descendants of Miles in our genealogy. If you wish to buy a copy of the book when it is published later this year, you may, but that is entirely up to you.

Sincerely,

Merwyn R. Buchanan

TO:Board of Directors, Miles Merwin (16232-1697) Association, Inc.
FROM: Merwyn R. Buchanan, Genealogist

SUBJECT: Genealogist's Report

1- Preparation of Volume III
Today I am turning over to Charles Merwin the draft of Volume III containing 328 pp of text so that he may edit and proof-read it. The Introduction is still to be written, and the index of names must be added when the manuscript is completed. The Index for Volume II contains ninety-nine pages and the Introduction nine pages. Thus the final manuscript will contain approximately 436 pages. In Volume II, the eleventh, twelfth and thirteenth generations took 287 pages. In Volume III, the same generations are expanded but fill only 191 pages. The reason for this apparent contradiction is the fact that Vol. I was written with each line 1-1/2 spaces apart. Volume III is single spaced. Thus, we have conserved space and the final manuscript will be about 440 pages instead of 957.

I have obtained a quotation from Port City Press to print Volume III. Attached is that quotation developed for 400, 500 and 600 copies. We must decide the quantity to have printed and the per copy cost.

2- Volume III Completion
I have contacted virtually all people possible to get up-date information. Unfortunately, there are many people I have been unable to get information from because of one of the following reasons:

a. Mail addressed to the address in our files was returned as undeliverable. Effort was made to contact syblings or parents by mail primarily and, in some cases, by telephone.

b. People never answered a letter in which case I wrote a second which was not answered.

A number of things contributed to our failure to obtain some up-date information. One is the increasing divorce rate. If the Merwin is a male and has been divorced, he is not interested in family matters even to the extent that he has no interest in, or does not know, the location of his children. Another is the fact that an increasing number of persons are co-habiting without getting married. Also, many are deferring marriage to complete long years of schooling or engaging in a career. The married children of eleventh generation female Merwins shown in Vol. II are less interested than their mothers particularly when you explain that they must join our Association to have their families in the book. Despite these problems, I feel we have done the substantial part of the job. You can see evidence in the two previous volumes of persons who would not give information. It is just that this is an increasing trend.

3- In October 1989, we published a new Association booklet. On advantage of this one over the new one is it contains fewer pages than the previous one and is, therefore, lighter. The postage to mail new members their welcoming letter together with a copy of Milestones, the address list and the Associaton booklet was $1.25 in the USA is now $1.05, a savings of $.20. or 16%.

4- Milestones
We experimented with a 10 page issue beginning with #89, September 1989. We found it did not increase postage to US destinations. However, mail to Canada must be sealed. The newsletter plus the envelope increased the postage to $.45. (One ounce is $.30). Another effect of the additional page was the printer is raisine his price because of the difficulty of folding ten pages. It must be done by hand. The increased cost will be $70.00 per issue. If you agree, we shall return to the eight page format which may necessitate delaying reports of some vitaql statistics, but that is not serious. The ten page issue was tried largely because of the addition of an unusually large number of new members and an increase in reporting for Volume III as well as Milestones.

5- Merwins Outside the USA
We should consider raising the cost of membership to persons living outside the USA. There are a large number in Canada, one in England, and our missionary cousin who moves from Korea to china to Canada. The price to these people should be in US funds. The Canadians who pay $10. Canadian are actually paying about $8.30 US less exchange fee.

6- Walter Merwin's Administration
Attached is a statement of the administration of Walter Merwin's estate. He was the father of Miles [1] Merwin.

Dear Mrs. Murwin:

Our Association is preparing Volume III of The Merwin Family in North America. Through some research and the capable assistance of Mr. Bernie Farmer of Edgerton, we have discovered that the Murwin family of Rock County, WI, are descendants of Miles [1] Merwin, our immigrant ancestor.

This is true even though your branch of the family spells the name with a "u" and others use an "e". In the 1600's in England, a form of handwriting called secretary's hand was in use. In that form of handwriting, the e was written like a u. Accordingly, some Merwins use a u and others an e.

Enclosed is a draft of the George Murwin line which connects your family with the line from Miles [1] Merwin. I would greatly appreciate it if you would give me any needed correction or addition to this draft so that the information may be entered as accurately as possible in our publication. Please fill in any blank spaces you can.

Where addresses are shown, I shall write those individuals for information about their immediate families.

Please understand there is no cost or obligation connected with this request. Persons born Merwins and their spouses are included in the book without charge. However, if you would like to become a member of our Association, we are enclosing a dues form for your convenience. We have over 600 members and have been in operation since 1956, published two volumes of genealogy detailing descendants of Miles [1]. We publish a newsletter three times a year to inform members of the doings of Merwin. We also hold regional and national reunions. One was held in Wausau, WI, a couple of years ago.

We are getting close to publication time for our new genealogy. I would appreciate your corrections and additions as soon as possible.

Best regards,

Merwyn R. Buchanan
Genealogist

Mrs. Lorraine R. Murwin

Edgerton WI 53534

Dear Mrs. Murwin:

Our Association is preparing Volume III of The Merwin Family in North America. Through some research and the capable assistance of Mr. Bernie Farmer of Edgerton, we have discovered that the Murwin family of Rock County, WI, are descendants of Miles [1] Merwin, our immigrant ancestor.

This is true even though your branch of the family spells the name with a "u" and others use an "e". In the 1600's in England, a form of handwriting called secretary's hand was in use. In that form of handwriting, the e was written like a u. Accordingly, some Merwins use a u and others an e.

Enclosed is a draft of the George Murwin line which connects your family with the line from Miles [1] Merwin. I would greatly appreciate it if you would give me any needed correction or addition to this draft so that the information may be entered as accurately as possible in our publication. Please fill in any blank spaces you can.

Where addresses are shown, I shall write those individuals for information about their immediate families.

Please understand there is no cost or obligation connected with this request. Persons born Merwins and their spouses are included in the book without charge. However, if you would like to become a member of our Association, we are enclosing a dues form for your convenience. We have over 600 members and have been in operation since 1956, published two volumes of genealogy detailing descendants of Miles [1]. We publish a newsletter three times a year to inform members of the doings of Merwin. We also hold regional and national reunions. One was held in Wausau, WI, a couple of years ago.

We are getting close to publication time for our new genealogy. I would appreciate your corrections and additions as soon as possible.

Best regards,

Merwyn R. Buchanan
Genealogist

He was clerk of Fulton Township for twenty years, clerk of Fulton state graded school for many years and served as clerk of Fulton Congregational Church for twenty-five years. He and Mrs. Murwin seldom missed a county meeting of the Democrats and they frequently attended state conventions. He lived his entire life in the home where he was born. His life span covered the ox cart era, the automobile age and airplane transportation. His wife worked with him for over fifty years in the grocery store. Oliver T. Murwin

EDGERTON—Oliver T. Murwin, 58, Rte. 2, Fulton Village, died Friday afternoon in Memorial Community Hospital where he had been a patient one day. Mr. Murwin had been in ill health about two years. Prior to his retirement due to illness he had been employed at Highway Trailer Industries, Inc., Edgerton.

Born Nov. 22, 1906, in Fulton, he was the son of Oliver P. and Ella Scofield Murwin, both members of pioneer Fulton Township families, and longtime owners and operators of the O. P. Murwin and Sons grocery store.

Oliver T. Murwin and Lorraine Ruosch were married Oct. 15, 1929, in Edgerton. He was a member of St. John's Lutheran Church.

Surviving are his wife; six sons, William, of Janesville, Franklin, Oliver P. and Allen, of Fulton, and Robert and Wayne, both at home; three daughters, Mrs. Lyle Phillips, Edgerton, Mrs. Russell Borde, Janesville, and Ruby, at home; 18 grandchildren; three brothers, Herbert, of Harrow, Ontario, Canada, George H., of Edgerton, and Chester W. of Fulton; and two sisters, Mrs. Walter Bidwell, Janesville, and Mrs. Harold Young, Stoughton.

Services will be held at 2 p.m. Monday in the Tellefson-Bruni Funeral Home, the Rev. F. A. Hertwig officiating. Burial will be in Fulton Cemetery. Friends may call at the funeral home after 3 p.m. Sunday.

the present U.S. output comes from this region. Much silver also is a by-product of copper and other mining, and output rises and falls with the demand for these metals.

New coinege proposals call for elimination of silver from dimes and quarters, and cutting of silver content to 40 per cent in half-dollars. But the First National City Bank, New York, points out today that "how the new coinage would affect the supply, demand and price outlook for silver" is still far from a settled question.

Zooming demand for silver in recent years is partly due to new uses for the metal in many fields of electronics and electrical equipment, including aerospace devices. Use in the photographic field has also grown rapidly.

The U.S. Treasury suspended sales of silver in November 1961 and has been retiring U.S. silver certificates at the statutory price of $1.2929 an ounce. The price on the London market Thursday was $1.297.

Treasury stocks now are estimated at a billion ounces, but present coinage use would cut this to about 445 million ounces by this time next year.

The price would have to rise beyond $1.3824 an ounce — the point at which the silver content of present dimes, quarter and halves would be equal to their face values, — before hoarders would be tempted to melt them down for their metal.

But as world demand climbs, production must rise or even the U.S. Treasury will find it hard to maintain the present legal price and protect its coins. Silver producers seem sure that one way or another prospecting and mining will have to be encouraged.

Dear Mrs. Flattem:

We are in the process of writing Volume III of The Merwin Family in North America and we recently discovered that you are descended from one Miles Merwin (born 1623) despite the difference in spelling of the family name.

We would like to include you and your family in the genealogy. In order to do so, would you please fill out the enclosed family record form and give us a brief biography of you and your spouse along the lines suggested below?

Please understand this is not a scam and there is no obligation on your part except we expect people, not born with the name Murwin, whose entries are in the book, to be interested enough in our Association to become a member. Dues are only $10 a year. A form is enclosed for your convenience. We want to include all known descendants of Miles in our genealogy. If you wish to buy a copy of the book when it is published later this year, you may, but that is entirely up to you.

Will you please fill out the enclosed record sheet for your parents?

Sincerely,

Merwyn R. Buchanan

Dear Mrs. Gorman:

We are in the process of writing Volume III of The Merwin Family in North America and we recently discovered that you are descended from one Miles Merwin (born 1623) despite the difference in spelling of the family name.

We would like to include you and your family in the genealogy. In order to do so, would you please fill out the enclosed family record form and give us a brief biography of you and your spouse along the lines suggested below?

Please understand this is not a scam and there is no cost or obligation on your part. We only want to include all known descendants of Miles in our genealogy. If you wish to buy a copy of the book when it is published later this year, you may, but that is entirely up to you.

I wrote a detailed explanation to your mother on January 18th.

Sincerely,

Merwyn R. Buchanan

Dear Mrs. Thronson:

Our Association is preparing Volume III of The Merwin Family in North America. Through some research and the capable assistance of Mr. Bernie Farmer of Edgerton, we have discovered that the Murwin family of Rock County, WI, are descendants of Miles [1] Merwin, our immigrant ancestor.

This is true even though your branch of the family spells the name with a "u" and others use an "e". In the 1600's in England, a form of handwriting called secretary's hand was in use. In that form of handwriting, the e was written like a u. Accordingly, some Merwins use a u and others an e.

Enclosed is a draft of the George Murwin line which connects your family with the line from Miles [1] Merwin. I would greatly appreciate it if you would give me any needed correction or addition to this draft so that the information may be entered as accurately as possible in our publication. Please fill in any blank spaces you can.

Where addresses are shown, I shall write those individuals for information about their immediate families.

Please understand there is no cost or obligation connected with this request. Persons born Merwins and their spouses are included in the book without charge. However, if you would like to become a member of our Association, we are enclosing a dues form for your convenience. We have over 600 members and have been in operation since 1956, published two volumes of genealogy detailing descendants of Miles [1]. We publish a newsletter three times a year to inform members of the doings of Merwin. We also hold regional and national reunions. One was held in Wausau, WI, a couple of years ago.

We are getting close to publication time for our new genealogy. I would appreciate your corrections and additions as soon as possible.

Best regards,

Merwyn R. Buchanan

boot shop. They believed in being diversified. George Murwin I na dson, Oliver, lived in the househat most of the local residents remember as the O.P Merwin house.

About 1893 Oliver's two sons, O.P. and Herbert, decided to enter the store business. For a few years they conducted their business on the first floor of Stewart's Hall. In 1897, the old school building which had been located on a lot between their father's house and the Kramer blacksmith shop, was moved to the corner lot when the blacksmith shop was dismantled. The building itself is of historic value because it was the original fram school-house built in 1847, which had been moved to the previous location when the brick school-house was built in 1864-65. A rear wing was added to the building. The brother, Herbert, remained as a partner until 1898 when he went to work at Sears and Roebuck and Compasny in Chicago. He passed away in 1900.

For thirty years O.P. Murwin and his wife, Ella Scofield Murwin, conducted the store. It became a familiar landmark and was the hub of the village. In 1927, a son, Chester, and his wife purchased the ✓ business. Oliver III was a partn~~b~~er from 1956-1958 when it was sold to "Mike" McGuire.

Dear Cousin:

We are in the process of preparing the manuscript for Volume III of The Merwin Family in North America.

You are a descendant of our immigrant ancestor, Miles Merwin (1623-1697) despite the difference in the spelling of the name. Mrs. Lloyd Apfel of Evansville gave me your address so that I could write you and invite you to have your family entry in Volume III. There is no cost or obligation. We are just seeking as many persons descended from Miles [1] as possibe.

Unfortunately, we just proved your line and obtained your name and address after two years of research on Volume III. So, time is of the essence. I hope you will fill out the enclosed Murwin/Merwin Family Record sheet for your family and return it to me as soon as you can. In fact, I must have it by April 1oth.

Also give me a brief biography of you and your spouse along the lines suggested below.

We need your help in preparing the supplement to the Merwin Family in North America.

Enclosed is a copy of your family's entry in MFNA. Is there any change you feel should be made? Particularly in the personal history section up-dating may be necessary.

If you have children over eighteen years of age, you will find enclosed a Merwin Family Record blank. If your child is married, please complete the family record for him or her and return it to me.

Your help is much appreciated.

Sincerely,

Merwyn

It has been many weeks since we wrote you asking for an update on your family record and you have not replied.

If I do not hear from you by March 31st, your record will be filed and omitted from Volume III. You will receive no other request.

Dear Cousin:

As you may know, we are in the process of updating family entries with the view to preparing Volume III of The Merwin Family in North America.

All members of the Association of the eleventh generation will have an opportunity to update their family entry and have the update included in Volume III. This includes the names and birth dates of your children. If, however, your children wish to have their wife and children in Volume III, they must become members of the Association. Will you please check with each of your children and, if they are interested in having their families in Volume III, ask them to send me a check for $10 payable to Miles Merwin Assn. for annual dues. I shall then contact them for information.

Please look at you entry in Volume II to see if any change is required. If so, write me and I shall include the change in Volume III.

Dear Mrs. Jeffrey:

Many thanks for completing the record sheet on your family so well.

Enclosed is a draft of the entry for your family and Joseph's family. Will you please make a review of these for accuracy and completeness.

I have a couple questions remaining:

1- What does the E. in Giles E. Merwin stand for?
2- What were your mother's parents' names including her mother's maiden name?
3- What does the H. in James H. Jeffrey stand for?
4- What is your son Joseph's full address (incl. zip)?
5- What are Debra Lusk's parents' names?
6- What is Debra's date and place of birth?
7- Did your mother die at Rochelle IL?

One more thing. Since Joseph was not born with the surname Merwin, he must be a member of the association to be written up in the eleventh generation chapter. The dues are a mere $2.00 per year. A check should be made payable to Miles Merwin Assn.

Do hope he'll join us.

Best regards,
Merwin

Dear Cousin:

Thank you for your recent letter and the account of pioneers in Trempealeau County, WI. It was interesting.

I am pleased to learn of the birth of your granddaughter, but, unfortunately, I can not include her in Volume III of The Merwin Family in North America since your son dropped his membership in our Association. Because he was not born a Merwin, he must be a member to have his child included.

I was sorry also to note that you have allowed your membership to elapse. In order to have an Association to inform Merwins, we must have members to support it. Volume III will cost about $20,000 to get ready for the printer. We must share in that cost if we want to have the book published.

Enclosed is a dues form for you and your son. How about rejoining? I can then include your grandchild.

Best regards,

Dear Cousin Merwyn,

My second cousin Elinor Husby got in touch with me when she found out about me being a cousin she wrote to get acquainted + we have been ~~correspoing~~ corresponding since. I was also glad to know about her.

She found this clipping about my paternal grandfather + sent it to me, so I had a copy of it made, which I am inclosing, as she thought you would be interested in having it.

I am also sending you my grandaughters birth date etc. She is my son Kenneths daughter.

Your have the required information of my son + his wife Anita that I sent you some time ago and before she was born, so with the information you already have of them + my husband + myself you should have the complete information of my family.

Anna Marie Heisenberger, daughter of Kenneth + Anita Heisenberger, born November - 18, 1985 at United + Childrens Hospital, St. Paul, MN.

Hope this helps you with the next volume you have printed.

Very truly yours,
Mrs. Art Heisenberger

Dear Merwyn,

As you can see I mailed this letter in Feb. and it traveled around quite a while before I finally got it back with the envelope stamped insufficient address, so I had to write + ask Elinor Husby for your correct address + as I received her letter to-day I'm sending it to you right away.

Sincerely,
Mrs. Art Weisenberger

Almon Everett Cram, who is engaged in raising fruit and nursery stock on his farm of 72 acres in section 34, Gale Township, was born near Belfast, Maine, March 27, 1856. His parents, Nathan and Esther (Bucklin) Cram, were also natives of that State. The family came to Wisconsin in 1860, locating about three miles west of Galesville. While the Civil War was in progress Nathan Cram enlisted in Company J, Thirty-sixth Wisconsin Regiment, and was killed in the battle of Cold Harbor. He had followed the occupations of miner and farmer. His wife survived him nearly half a century, dying about 1910. They had four children, of whom Almon E. was the eldest.

Almon Everett Cram was a child of 4 years when he accompanied his parents to Trempealeau County, and his earliest boyhood recollections are associated with pioneer conditions. The Indians were numerous, but never gave them any trouble, and when he grew older he kept on good terms with them, avoiding them as much as possible without the appearance of doing so, but always treating them in a just and friendly manner when he had occasion to meet them. The woods in those days were full of game. Deer could be shot at almost any time on the bluffs, and bears were not uncommon. As for pigeons, they were so numerous as to be a serious pest to the farmers, eating the grain as fast as it could be sown. When 16 years old young Almon began to work out for others and continued to do so until he was 22, when he bought land and began farming for himself in Stearns Valley, Trempealeau County. About 1879 he took up his residence in Galesville, where he resided for 12 years, engaged in teaming. He then, in 1891, began operations on his present farm, which he had previously purchased, making a specialty of the fruit and nursery business, in which he has been successful. He was a charter member of the first fire company in Galesville and for three years has served as president of the Burns Curling Association. Mr. Cram was married in 1876 to Isabelle Gunderson, who was born in Norway, daughter of Michael and Betsy Gunderson. She came to America with her parents when a child of 7 or 8 years, they settling in Bear Creek Valley on a homestead five miles north of Ettrick. After residing there a number of years they moved across the river into Minnesota, near Bear Park, where Mrs. Gunderson is now living, her husband being deceased. Mr. and Mrs. Cram have had seven children, one of whom died in infancy. The others are: Blanche, wife of Thomas Hunter, a hardware merchant of Galesville; Lela, wife of Harry Bennett, a farmer of Centerville, Wis.; Ray, who married Eunice Tucker, and resides in Galesville; Mabel, wife of Milton Merwin, a farmer of Centerville; and John and Vilas, who reside at home and are assisting their father in operating the farm. Mr. Cram is a Democrat in politics, but has taken no active part in local government affairs. He is warmly interested, however, in the progress and development of the community in which he lives, and always ready to aid in advancing its interests.

Dear Cousin:

Thank you for the newspaper clipping you sent me with your letter of 5 February.

Unfortunately, your grandchild can not be included in Volume III of The Merwin Family of North America. Your son allowed his membership in our Association to lapse for non-payment of dues in 1982. A person not born a Merwin can not have his family in the book unless he is a member of our Association. We just feel that a person must be interested in the Association to be included.

I was sorry to note that you, too, dropped your membership. You missed out on some rather interesting developments in the Merwin genealogy. We need your help to further our research to improve our knowledge of our heritage.

Best regards,

Dear Cousin Mervyn,
In regard to the letter we each received, my son Kenneth & I were confused as to just what you desired in the way of corrections, whether we were just supposed to add some things that were forgotten the first time or also to update the information on our heritage.
After graduating from Galesville High School at Galesville, Wis. in 1927 I worked as a switchboard operator for the Western Wisconsin Telephone Co. at Centerville, Wis. for a year, after which I was employed as book keeper at the Western W.I. Telephone Co. office at Arcadia, W.I. for one year and resigned from that job and then was employed as secretary for the Silbaugh Auto Co. at Arcadia, W.I., resigned from that position & was married, after which I held the other jobs that I listed with the first information that I gave you. I am a member of the Our Lady of Perpetual Help Catholic Church & a member of St. Ann's Society.

Very truly yours,

Mrs. Doris Weisenberger

Dear Mr. Buchanan,

Two years ago I had the dubious honor of being the coordinator for our church's new pictorial directory & the moment I sent it to the printer, it was out of date - I know the same thing is true in preparing the Supplement.

There have been several changes in the past two-three months with our family that have delayed some of the information I submit to you now.

Nancy & Jeff moved from Little Canada to Inver Grove Heights on Aug 1 - on Aug 2 Jeff was layed off - with a new apartment & their first child on the way (due late Oct), there was cause for some concern for a time. In 3 weeks Jeff started a new job - & they have finally unpacked the rest of their things, hung pictures, & are preparing happily for the birth of their baby!

This afternoon I had just finished typing the updated material when our son walked in & stated he had been phased out of his job along with several other people. Fortunately, Larry won't have any problems finding a job in his field - we are grateful for that. If you think it appropriate, the Sheldahl job information could be left in as is. Larry & Linda are moving Oct. 1 - new address is in my enclosure. (over)

Otis was in military service between high school & College - I have included that information. The corrections in spelling & dates I have marked in red - also deleted the outdated material.

If there are any questions on any of the submitted information, please feel free to call me.

Yours truly,

Rose-Marie Merwin

We are writing a Supplement to The Merwin Family in North America (published in 1978). Our purpose is to continue that genealogy from the tenth through the fourteenth generations (from Miles Merwin 1623-1697).

Since you are one of our family, we would appreciate your completing the enclosed family record. Missing items are encircled or indicated by a question mark. There is no charge or obligation on your part. All Merwins should be in the book.

Your cooperation will be much appreciated.

Best regards,

Dear Cousin:

Enclosed is the typed draft of your family entry for the Supplement we are writing to the Merwin Family in North America. Since we are starting to prepare the final manuscript for the printer, please review the enclosure carefully for accuracy. Make any needed correction on the enclosure and return it to the writer.

Some entries lack interesting information on the family head. For example, where he/she attended school, year graduated, degrees earned (name of school and city of location); occupation and employer; military service (dates, grade or rank, branch of service); civic or church service. We will be pleased to include information of this type which you furnish.

Your reply must be received by the writer by September 30, 1982, or we shall assume your entry is satisfactory as drafted.

Sincerely yours,

Merwyn

Dear Cousin:

Mrs. Catherine Merwin of Camdenton, ~~Ill~~ Mo., was kind enough to give me your address and end my search for you. In 1978, we published The Merwin Family in North America and your name appears on page 701. We are now writing a supplement to up-date that record.

Enclosed is a record sheet which shows the little we know of you. Will you please fill in the missing (encircled) items and return the form to me?

Also can you answer these questions?

1) what date in 1907 were your parents married?
2) what was the full name of your mother's father?
3) what was the full name of your mother's mother?
4) what date was your mother born?
5) where (city + state) was your mother born?

No cost or obligation to you. Thanks for your help.

Merwyn

Dear "Cousin" Merwyn,

Thank you for your letter of 3 February 1990 with the information about a gift set of MMA books to the Valparaiso Genealogy library in Valparaiso, Indiana. They have an excellent library there that is only about 10 or 12 years old but very useful. I have lspent many an hour there and supplying them with this set of books that would not likely be among the expenditures of their small budget should aid a great number of researchers.

Thank you too for your kind explanation of how Mr. Harrison reasoned that Walter & Maragaret Merwin of Windsor, England are the parents of Miles Merwin, our ancestor. My misgivings about this conclusion is presently based only past experience in tracing other lines. Perhaps by corresponding with him, we may obtain some additional evidence, one way or the other.

The books I mentioned unfortunately do not belong to me but the University of Florida, quite a large collection apparently given to the University about the turn of the century. I will compile a title list of some that have been very useful on other lines in Milford, Windsor & Fairfield Conn. from Co. Devon, Co. York, Co. Warwick, Etc.

It was also exciting to learn that someone as near as Ocala, Fl. was actively involved with MMA. Unfortunately, I have been unsuccessful in reaching her.

Thank you again for your helpful response and look forward to future correspondence.

Best Regards

Your "cousin"

Dear Sandra:

It was a pleasure talking to you on the phone this morning.

Enclosed is the form for ordering our publications. It does not show the prices for publications shipped directly to libraries. These prices are as follows:

Vol. I	$25.40
Vol. II	$20.00
Lineage Locator	$12.00

The whole set may be purchased for $55.00.

The address of the professional genealogist is:

I.R. Harrison
P.O. Box 113
Norwich, England

I am intrigued by your questioning the names of Mile [1]'s parents. I am looking forward to hearing about the information you have. Harrison reasoned that emigrants to America often named their new settlements after the town in England from which they removed. Since Miles first settled in Windsor, CT, Harrison reasoned that Miles may have originated in Windsor, England. this caused him to check the records of Windsor, England, and there he found the baptism of Miles. Without that kind of reasoning, we would have never found that record. Accordingly, I think he is an exceptional genealogist. If you meet him, I would be intersted in your impression of him.

I am also interested in the books you found in the library which show the parentage of English-born persons. I would like to see those.

Looking forward to getting the information you want in Vol. III. I must close off new material by March 31st. So I suggest you get the data to me promptly.

Best regards,

Merwyn R. Buchanan

Dear Mr. Buchanan.

Thank you for being so patient waiting for the info. I have tried to supply for the Supplement. We arrived here in Fond du Lac, Wis in time for a Merwin Family Reunion on July 4th. It was very rewarding & successful as 82 persons attended from New Jersey, Arizonia, Missouri, and Florida, as well as the surrounding area - We were staying with our Son Robert Bosin at the above address, but expect to leave for our home in Florida next Monday -

Will the supplement contain all the listings, plus the new information?

Sincerely yours

Dear Cousin:

When he received your dues payment, Gaius Merwin noticed that the name Roxine Castro was on the check along with your name. He wondered whether you had remarried.

I believe this is your daughter since I recall corresponding with her some years ago. I am curious about the Castro of her name. Has she married? If so, please give me the following information about her marriage.

1- date of marriage and place
2- her husband's full name, date and place of birth
3- his father's full name
4- the full name of his mother including her maiden name
5- her current address

We need this information to put in the Milestones and our genealogical records.

Your help will be appreciated.

Best regards,

Dear Cousin:

In my search for Merwins who belong in the Supplement to MFNA, I found in a Silver Springs, Md. phonebook an Anita P. Merwin on Oak Leaf Drive. I wrote to her and she replied that her husband was Jack Melvin Merwin but she gave me no address for him.

Tonight, in ruffling through correspondence, I found he ~~was~~ is your son!

Will you please give me his present address as well as the addresses for Cecil, Jr. & Rosine? I am anxious to give each of them an opportunity to be in the Supplement

On Dec. 17, 1980, I sent you forms and your family entry and asked you for information for the Supplement we are writing.

I realize you have a large family and it takes time to get detailed information together, but will you please let me know if you are intending to send me data?

If your children are not interested, all I need about them is the dates of their births and the family entry will be complete. Also need your husband's full date of birth.

Dear Cousin:

We need your help in preparing the supplement to the Merwin Family in North America.

Enclosed is a copy of your family's entry in MFNA. Is there any change you feel should be made? Particularly in the personal history section up-dating may be necessary.

If you have children over eighteen years of age, you will find enclosed a Merwin Family Record blank. If your child is married, please complete the family record for him or her and return it to me.

Your help is much appreciated.

Sincerely,

Merwyn

PS - Thank you for your help on the phone Tuesday evening.

Dear Cousin Linda:

Thank you for editing your family entry. You said Brandywine College became Widener University. I thought Widener was the former PMC – Pennsylvania Military College located in Chester, Pa. Is it possible it also took in Brandywine? Where was Brandywine located? What year were you awarded the A.S. degree?

To join our association, just send me a check payable to Miles Merwin Assn for $5.00 annual dues.

Best regards,
Merwyn

Dear Cousin Dorothy:

Since I know you are concerned that all of your grandchildren are shown in Volume III of MFNA, I am writing to tell you how things stand.

I wrote Sharon on 11 January 1990 asking her to update her entry for Vol. III. I did not tell her that you had paid her dues just asked for information. She has not replied. Therefore, her entry will be in the book with the additions as you have given them to me.

Michael replied to my request for information and his entry is in.

I wrote Ronald and explained that his family entry was not in Vol. II because he failed to respond to my pleas to join the Association. I also informed him that his entry will not be in Vol. III either unless he joined. He ignored my letter and I have dropped him from Vol. III.

I can reenter Ronald's entry if I receive a check for $10 before 31 March. I will not be able to accept it after that.

Best regards,

Merwyn R. Buchanan

Dear Mr. Buchanan--

A few days ago, I sent you the info for Mike Langacker family, and Sharon Adams family.

I believe it would be a good idea to contact each of them, as I apparenty have incomplete, or incorrect information.

Michael was surprised that no one had contacted him, as he had been a member before, and has the first two volumns, and will probably get the third when finished.

I am unsure where the hospital is located.

He also informed me that he understood that Sharon had a son, and I thought I heard a daughter

It is unfortunate that there are inter-family problems that cause people to stop communicating.

I would like to have the information as complete as possible.

Michael would give you all of his info.

Perhaps with Sharon you could approach it from the angle that it has come to your attention that she had another child and would like the info to complete your records.

I plan to be in Wisconsin this summer, and will make another attempt to establish a relationship with Sharon again, so if I can learn anything further, I will relay it to you.

Another son, Ronald, apparently doesn't care to have his children listed, as they were not in Vol II. However, he has four children, and if you care to contact him, his address may be the same as shown in Vol. II (279 Candy Lane, Fond du Lac, WI 54935.)

Lawrence and Lu Ann Langacker have no children.

I hope this will not make too much unnecessary work for you, but because I have 12 grandchildren, and they are direct Merwin descendants, it would be nice to have them all in there.

Thank you for your time in this matter.

Sincerely,

Dorothy Young

Did I mention that I may get the $55.00 set for the Fond du Lac Library? That is the city where most of the Merwins are located now, Home town for most of us.

Will be in touch after we move in March.

also ④ son Douglas Robert ADAMS 6-Feb-85

⑤ daughter ? ? 89

NOTE - Sharon has been estranged from me since early '86 - I am sending in her dues in order to get grandchildren listed.

Perhaps you could get in touch with her and ask for more complete information. She may not comply.

No need for her to know I suggested it, but you could say that info. had come to you about 2 more newer descendants & would like further information.

Handle it however you choose.

I shall find out if the Fond du Lac Public Library has any of your copies. If not I plan to buy a set (all 3 for $55.00?) this year.

As of March 30, 1990 we will be "on the road." no permanent address, so I will be in touch with you.

Thanks for your time.

Sincerely,
Dorothy Young

Gordon & I do not wish to have our address listed, as Mr Langacker (first spouse) still a threat to me. D.Y.

Dear Merwyn:

Thank you for your letter of July 20.

I am returning the 2nd page that needed the blanks filled in. Page 1 appears to be O.K. with one exception.

To the best of my knowledge, Michael is Debra's first and only husband, but the paragraph reads as though she had been married before. Would you please check the info that you received from Michael?

Also, please note that I have deleted the material pertaining to the adoption of David Langacker, by Lawrence. This is due to the fact that I am not sure whether he has been so informed. I am afraid that there might be psychological damage if he were told by his 10 year old cousin rather than his parents.

I believe at the time I sent the info in last year I was not aware that it would appear in the supplement.

The relationship between Larry and myself has been very fragile for some time, and I would not want to do anything to jeopardize it. I shall write and let him know you would like the info about LuAnn's parents, but unless he responds and includes David's name, perhaps it would be best to use only what we have now.

I would rather be blamed for an omission than something that would cause other problems.

Thank you again for your time in this matter.

Sincerely,

Dorothy Young

I am sending a copy of this letter to Merwyn in the hopes that the information can still be listed.

Perhaps at a later date I can send a donation for the supplement.

Sincerely,

Mrs. Gordon Young

Dear Dorothy:

As I believe you know, persons not born with the name Merwin must be members of our association to have their family entry in the Supplement.

Although I have written Lawrence and Sharon, neither of them have replied or joined the association. Accordingly, I have no choice but to revise their entry to show only their names and dates of birth.

I am writing to tell you this since you will then understand, when the Supplement is published, why Ronald's + Michael's families show and the families of the other children do not.

Best regards,

Merwyn

Dear Cousin Merwyn--

I am sorry it has taken me so long to return this information to you.

My sister Virginia Lipps sent this to me in Calif. as you had lost touch with me when I left Wis. in 1972. Apparently these blanks had been sent to her.

This is updated info for myself.

Dorothy Mae Merwin Langacker was divorced from Harold Langacker April 4, 1973.
Married to Gordon F. Young April 25, 1973
No children by this marriage.
Presently living in Riverside, CA

I am sorry I could not give you more complete info concerning my children's baptism dates etc., but I left all such records behind when making this move. I am also unsure of some of the spouse's year of birth.

If you wish further info from the children, perhaps they could be contacted direct.

I am curious about the spelling of the name with the "y" in place of the "i". I have seen it many times before and never knew the connection.

Should we find ourselves in your part of the country, I would like to be in touch with you.

Thank you for your part in this project.

Sincerely,

Dear Cousin:

Many thanks for the family records.

Just a few questions:

1) where did you marry Mr. Young?
2) what is his middle name?
3) when & where was he born?
4) what are his parents full names (include)? mother's maiden name).

Don't worry about baptism dates. We ask for those only when birth dates are not known. I'll write to each of your children for any missing details.

My birth certificate reads:

Merwin Russell Buchanan

However, my mother taught me to write my name Merwyn. I'm named after Uri Nettleton Merwin my great, great grandfather. I was lucky I got the last name. So the "y" was a whim of my mother.

I would be delighted to meet you if and when you get to the Philadelphia area.

Incidentally, you must become a member. We need the help of every Merwin to make our organization growth and serve its purpose. And we'll send you Milestones periodically to keep you up-to-date on your cousins. Annual dues are only $2.00. (Check payable to Miles Merwin Assn.).

Best regards,

Merwyn
